We offer this, the "Makio of 1930", to you with the hope that it will ever be of aid to you in your moments of reminiscing; that it will guide your thoughts to perfect recollections of incidents throughout those unsurpassable college days. If the memories be pleasant or not, so long as we help you to vividly recall, we have accomplished our purpose. Many a book has been published with a more potent purpose but none, I hope, which will bring as much real happiness.

‘‘LOOPS MY DEAR’’

In ‘‘Loops, My Dear,’’ presented on tour during the Christmas recess and at the Hartman Theater on January 16, 17 and 18, Scarlet Maskers sang and danced their way to the greatest success they have attained in any musical comedy production of the present college generation.

Jack Price and LeRoy Morris, one-time Sun Dialers, provided Director Bobby Hines with a worthy vehicle; catchy in its tunes, humorous in its lines, and timely in its theme.

‘‘Loops, My Dear’’ looked to the future, to the days when airplane racing shall become a Varsity sport. Its story was of the all-important annual sky dash of Buckeye and Wolverine aviators for the championship. One collegiate pilot ‘‘sold out’’ to a gambling syndicate, refused to represent his university in the race and assisted in the drugging of Ohio State’s crack airman on the eve of the contest. A daring co-ed, disguised as the Buckeye flier, won the event for her alma mater.

Those who saw this high-flying 1930 Scarlet Mask revue carried away a medley of pleasant impressions—impressions of Billie Leonard’s matchless singing and dancing, of Cheer leader Billy Radebaugh’s clever mugging and hoofing, of Gertrude Walker’s characterization of a sensuous enchantress, of Milton Caniff’s buffoonery, of Doris Maus’ pulchritude, and the acrobatic dancing by Tom Sherman and Malcolm Wolfe.

Bruce Alexander and Miss Maus had the nominal leads, but because of the secondary nature of the roles and the handicap of weak or untrained voices, yielded first honors to Miss Leonard, the Ohio Theater’s ‘‘Personality Girl’’ of 1928, the facile Radebaugh and the veteran Caniff. The latter, cast in the principal comedy role only four days before the Columbus opening, came through with a performance surpassing even his work in ‘‘Beau Kay’’ and ‘‘Oceans of Love,’’ former Mask revues. David Larrimer and William E. Knepper teamed well as the villains.

The choruses, as could be expected in an amateur production, lacked polish and synchronization in their routines, but each contributed one good number; the girls in ‘‘I’m Building a House,’’ and the boys in ‘‘The Dance of the Waiters.’’

Excellent trappings elevated the quality of the show. Costumes were tastefully designed and executed, and stage settings created a proper atmosphere.

Richard S. Wolfe again led the Scarlet Mask Band in a flawless rendition of the musical score.

"The Yellow Jacket", a Chinese Romance by Hazelton and Benrimo, was the winter presentation of the campus' oldest dramatic organization. The contrast between the gorgeous costumes and the ludicrously inadequate properties, the utter boredom and indifference of the property men who remained on the stage during the whole of the play, and the subtle humor of the plot served to keep the audience in continuous mirth.

Festivities, recalling the spirited days gone by, were present in the Homecoming activities preceding the annual Illinois-Ohio State gridiron game last fall. Once again the Law School banded together to place their candidate comfortably in the seat of Queen of Homecoming. Miss Ethel Husselman, Law 1, was elected by the student body to preside over the many events which preceded the battle on Saturday.

Friday night's celebration prepared the participants for the game the following day with its spirited rally and the official Homecoming brawl at Valley Dale. Old Ohio Field rocked with cheers, reminiscent of other days as the under-grads made merry around the blazing bonfire. Assisted by the band and the Men's Glee Club the music reached skyward as did the crackling flames of the immense woodpile accumulated by the students. Coach Sam Willaman and the team also took part in the short pep talks and rollicking cheers. It is needless to say that everyone had a big time at the Dale, where Miss Husselman was officially crowned the reigning Queen. She was escorted to the dance by Marion Chenoweth, chairman of the dance.

ETHEL HUSSELMAN
Homcoming Queen

The mardi-gras parade, held Saturday morning, turned out as a highly successful venture. Thirty-six floats were entered, the whole being led by the Queen and the strutting Ohio State band. Flowers should be presented to Mr. Benedict Backley for his competent handling of this feature of the celebration. The line of decorated cars wended its way through the University district, which furnished an appropriate background with the Greek letter houses decked out in gay colors. The floats passed the reviewing stands twice before the final awards were given. Freshmen Y. M. C. A. was judged the most humorous entry.

Miss Husselman took a little ride in the Goodyear blimp "Defender" and was landed at the Stadium just before the game, being greeted cheerily by the crowd. She in turn greeted the two rival captains. Some say that she wished Wes Fesler just a wee bit more luck than she did the man from Illinois—but then!

The game, played before a crowd of some sixty-five thousand people, was the high point of the week-end, which closed Saturday night with a goodly number of house dances at the various fraternity houses.

JUNIOR PROM

WESLEY FESLER . . . President

HAZEL HUEUR The Queen of the Prom

Campus society attained its peak for the season on the occasion of the annual Junior Prom. Held on February fourteenth, it served as an appropriate climax for St. Valentine's Day festivities. Distinguished from the proms of previous years by tranquillity and dignity, it was a distinct achievement for the Class of 1931. Handing the favors out at the door eliminated the commotion which was distastefully apparent at other proms.

Perfect syncopation was furnished by McKinney's Cotton Pickers. This group, composing the world's most famous negro orchestra, came especially from Detroit to play for the affair. The Neil House ballroom, its floor swarming with overhanging hues, furnished a most adequate setting for this most entrancing of dances.

Wesley Fesler and his blonde and wide-eyed queen, Miss Hazel Heuer, led the Grand March. William Radebaugh, general chairman of the affair, and Wilhelmina (Billie) Leonard, as his guest, were the attendants of the regal couple. These and other prom officials wore full dress and thus established a precedent. Dave Schooler, master of ceremonies during that week at the Ohio, lent his pleasing personality to the Prom-goers and Bill Dalton, another Ohio attraction was also on the scene, to the delight of those present. Campus aristocracy was on parade in full force, bathing in the spot-light of Prom festivities. Orange, pink, white, and black gowns swept across the floor on every side, contrasting with the uniform and conservative tuxedos. The long skirt mode was strikingly apparent.

Chaperons for the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Park, Mr. and Mrs. Sam S. Willaman, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Fullen, and Glen Dalton.

THE SOPHOMORE HOP

In spite of dark threats of kidnapping on the part of the Freshman Class, the annual Sophomore Hop was held without commotion on January Twenty-Fourth at Valley Dale. Stuart Holcomb, the intended victim, led the cotillion with pretty Dorothy E. Trees as his queen. Ruth MacBride, as the guest of James R. Leister, general chairman of the frolic, was the maid of honor. Mal Hallet's Recording Orchestra furnished the music in their own inimitable style. Approximately four hundred couples, including many campus celebrities, attended the affair.

INTERFRATERNITY BALL

The annual Interfraternity Ball was held on March the Seventh as the climax of a brilliant social season on the campus. A capacity crowd attended the affair at the Neil House ballroom.

Leading the Grand March was Doris Maus as the queen of the ball and guest of Buddy Moser, president of the Interfraternity Council. Attendants of the regal couple were Dorothy Dillon, maid of honor, and John Bohlender, general chairman of the affair, as her escort. They were followed by Margaret May of Ohio Wesleyan and her escort Rodney Love, vice-president of the Council.

Music was furnished by the Casa Loma Orchestra, Jean Goldkette's recording combination, which came directly from New York for the affair. Lou Holtz, noted Broadway entertainer, lent his sparkling personality to the festivities. He acted as master of ceremonies and introduced a group of entertainers from the Ohio Theatre.

Guests of honor at the affair were President and Mrs. George W. Rightmire and Governor and Mrs. Meyers Y. Cooper. Dean and Mrs. Joseph A. Park, Dean Esther Allen Gaw, Edward S. Drake, Professor and Mrs. Roderick Peattie and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Eckelberry attended as chaperons.

THE WINTER QUARTER VARSITY DEBATE TEAM

At the close of the season, Ohio State, Wisconsin, and Purdue were tied for first place in the Big Ten debate league.

The proposition debated during the winter quarter was: "Resolved, that the several states of the United States be allowed to adopt the Ontario system of liquor control".

The Ohio State affirmative team defeated Purdue at Columbus, while the Ohio State negative team lost the decision to Wisconsin at Madison.

The affirmative team was composed of the following men: Lloyd Bennett, first speaker, a member of Forum and an alternate on the autumn quarter team; Ralph Robuck, second speaker, who for the first time debated in Western Conference competition and proved himself to be a valuable asset to his team; William Knight, captain of the affirmative team and another new varsity man.

The negative team was composed of these men: Lionel Sorenson, first speaker, a member of Forum as well as an experienced debater, having participated in debates against Illinois, Iowa, and Wisconsin; John Allen, second speaker, a newcomer to the ranks of intercollegiate debating and a marked credit to the University; Clayton Schug, twice captain of the varsity team and president of Forum and a member of Phi Delta Gamma, as well.

The alternates of these teams were Joe Moorehead and William Daugherty, respectively.

Mr. Morris Lopper coached both of the teams.

MEN'S DEBATE—FALL SERIES

Ohio State took the lead in the Big Ten Intercollegiate Debate League when she won both debates in the December series, the negative team winning from the University of Iowa at Iowa City, and the Affirmative team defeating the University of Northwestern at Columbus.

The subject for debate was: "Resolved, that the principal of the Chain Store System is detrimental to the best interests of the United States Public."

Our Affirmative team was composed of the following men: Saul H. Dulberg who's excellent oratorical style made him exceptionally capable of presenting the first Affirmative argument; Maurice L. Schellenger, the second speaker, is a member of both Forum and Phi Delta Gamma, which are Forensic fraternities; John N. Fegan, the third speaker, who was also captain of the team, gained much of his valuable experience in the Michigan High School Debate Finals in which he participated.

Our Negative team was composed of the following men: M. Lester Hanna, the first speaker and captain of the team, is a former varsity debator from Bowling Green, where he was a member of the team which defeated a team from Oxford, England. He was the most valuable debator of either series of this season; William L. VanNess, the second speaker, is a member of Forum, local forensic fraternity; Lionel J. Sorensen, the third speaker, is an experienced speaker, having won the state Prince of Peace Declamation Contest in 1928. He is a member of Forum, and also very active in other campus activities, being a member of the upper Class "Y" Cabinet and of Strollers.

Harold P. Zelkowitz and Lloyd B. Bennett were alternates of the teams and Lloyd became a member of the winter series varsity team. Both of these men are members of Forum.

Emory Glander of the Department of Public Speaking coached both teams. Professor Joseph Denny presided at the debate at Columbus, and Professor H. S. Woodward of Western Reserve gave the decision. Professor H. L. Eubank of the University of Wisconsin was the Judge of the Debate at Iowa City.

WOMEN'S DEBATING TEAM

The forensic capabilities of three Ohio State coed debaters decided the debate held on January the 24th in University Chapel between the affirmative team of Ohio and the negative team of Indiana. The subject for the fifth annual intercollegiate debate between the two schools was: "Resolved, that the present extent of Installment Buying of goods for private consumption is detrimental to the Nation".

Members of the affirmative team were Elma Whitney, Mary Edgerton, and Marie Schaffter.

Just one week earlier the negative team of Ohio State went down in defeat before our traditional rival, Michigan, in a spirited debate held at Ann Arbor.

Those of Ohio State team who formed the negative team debating the above question were Jean Woolford, Aileen Kennedy, and Margaret Miller.

“BILLY” RADEBAUGH

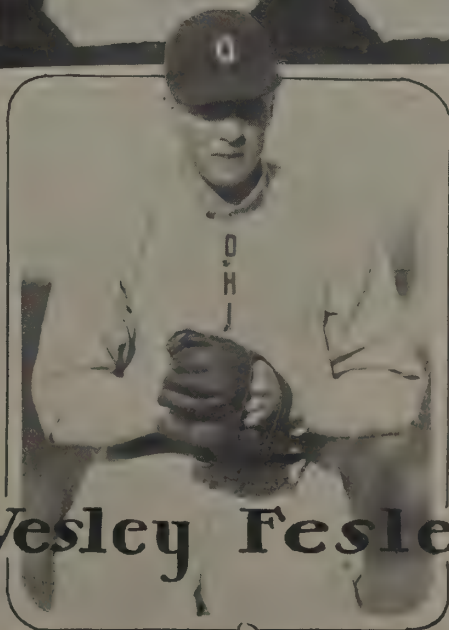

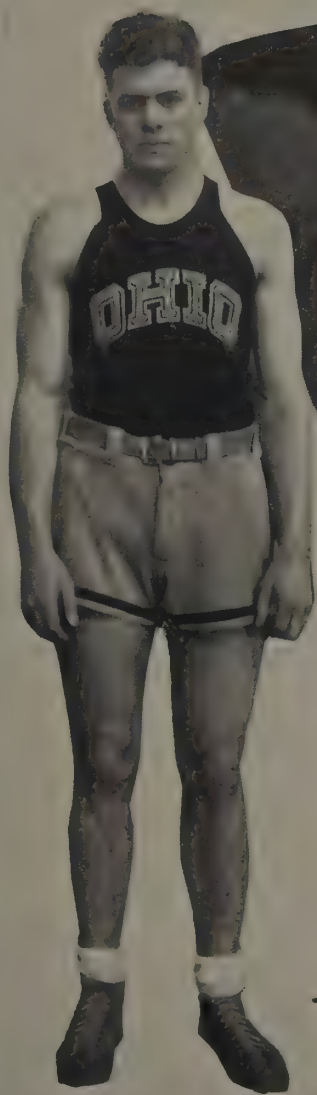

Ohio State lost a capable cheerleader when Bill Radebaugh, Head Cheerleader for the past three years refused to be a candidate to succeed himself. His absence will be deeply felt on the part of Ohio State sport-goers. Since his first installation as cheer maestro, Bill has been a fixture of Ohio State sports events. It was only when he was not leading the cheers that Ohio fans have been able to appreciate what he meant to the furthering of college spirit.

Radebaugh is one of the few students who ever won the cheer-leading post while still a freshman. His scarlet blazer and smiling face which simply exuded optimism during old Ohio's most depressing moments were a happy inspiration to the fans during football games. He ridicules the idea that Ohio State spirit has degenerated at athletic contests and vouches for its improvement during the last few years.

The press of other duties and a desire to let other candidates have a chance were his reasons for resignation.

Cheer-leading trials during several basketball games resulted in the election of Herb Decker to succeed Radebaugh and the naming of Russell Saxby and Paul James as his assistants. The new regime looks capable and we wish them luck and promise them cooperation.

Football

Last summer Sam Willaman rather inauspiciously became the Ohio State Football Coach. Some were enthusiastic, some were dubious, and others were quite pessimistic about Ohio's football future.

Now that the first season is history we can resume and judge.

Sam is giving everything that he has for the football success of our university and in his first attempt he went to Michigan and returned with a scalp. That in itself is indicative enough that Sam is getting what Ohio Staters demand.

This next year we hope that Willaman will repeat and we know that he will do all in his power to lengthen the victory string.

VARSITY "O" FOOTBALL MEN

Clarence "Tubby" Zincke, manager extraordinary, and Wellington Roemer deserve considerable mention as the managers of the football team for the past season. Football managers do more than watch and blow balls, they keep statistics for the coach, they are in full charge of trip arrangements, and are always bears for punishment.

Charley Griffith has been elected head manager for the 1930 football season.

WITTENBERG 0

This, the opening game of the season, proved to be one in which the proverbial "breaks" played a great part. Ohio had three additional touchdowns in the bag except for a turn of fate, one of these being across the goal line. At the end of the first half, the ball was on the one foot line; at the end of the game it rested two yards from the last white line; a 65-yard run of Art Huston's was called back because of clipping. Wittenberg's unlucky breaks consisted in the blocking of several punts near their own goal line. One of their forward passes was intercepted on the 32 yard line, McConnell racing over for a touchdown.

HORN
Half

Ohio's line blocked hard and gave promise of developing into a strong defensive wall, as well. The ends, Fesler and Fontaine, played a great game, throwing the Lutherans for many loses and driving down quickly under punts to stop the safety man dead. Nothing outstanding showed up in the backfield play, Huston, Horn, McConnell, Holcomb, and Hess all performing well. The Bucks needed smother work in their plays although they sifted through the Wittenberg line for fifteen first downs, while the Springfield backs were garnering but three. Ohio outgained their opponents four times from scrimmage and gave on the whole an impression of a team that might develop into championship caliber.

OHIO 7

Ohio's second conference win in the Stadium was at the expense of Iowa, and came as a result of a blocked punt which was recovered by Larkins for a touchdown. The shifty running attack of the "Corn Huskers" was led by Pape, who was assisted by Farroh, Thomas, and the Jansvold twins. This array of backs, minus the services of Captain Glassgow, had the Buckeyes worried the first half but were held in check in the final period.

The scoring was confined to the first frame, in which Pape ran 40 yards to chalk up the visitor's touchdown. Nelson, Iowa's famous drop-kicker, was sent into the fray, but, too anxious, he hesitated and the attempt was blocked by O'Shaughnessy and Larkins.

LARKINS

IOWA 6

At the beginning of the second half, Iowa carried the ball from their own 16 yard line to State's 23 yard marker. This time it was our All-American end and his running mate Larkins who checked the drive. After a bad kick by McConnell, Pape slipped through the Ohio line for 40 yards and an apparent touchdown but it was called back because of an offside play. From then on Ohio held the upper hand, the Hawk's offense being stopped cold by the Buckeye line. This superb play reminded one of the famous last quarter stands made by the Scarlet on old Ohio Field.

Considering the breaks of the game, Iowa should have won, but for spirited play, the victory rests with the deserving team.

OHIO 7

Led by the driving play of Wes Fesler, the Buckeyes duplicated their performance of 1929 by downing their Wolverine rivals to the tune of 7 to 0. "Fes" was on the end of the touchdown pass and many times cut through to spill the Michigan backs for a loss.

In the first half, the Scarlet and Gray predominated in all departments of the game and made its 15,000 followers feel confident of a victory. The story was reversed in the final frame and the Michigan drive repeatedly threatened the Ohio goal. The Wolverine attack became null and void, however, when met by the sturdy and impregnable band of Ohio linemen.

The opening minutes of play found the fast moving offense of the Willaman lads carrying the ball to the 10 yard marker before it was checked by the Michigan linemen.

The second quarter was but a minute and a half old, when Fesler hooked a pass from Holman and slipped over the line for the games only touchdown. Graf Barratt added the extra point with his big but trusty toe.

Willie Heston, son of Michigan's "only one", started out the second half, to set the world on fire, but, fortunately, because of a few Scarlet boys, had to go home for more matches. He did, however, worry the Ohioans for some thirty minutes and displayed some shifty running tactics. Truskowski, pulled from the line to serve in the backfield, although playing a good game, was not quite acclimated to his new role.

HOLCOMB

MICHIGAN 0

The Wolverines drove to the eight yard line in the closing minutes of the game but Gembis, the Michigan fullback, was upset by the whole of Ohio's line as the referee called the game. The sun-baked, Ohio rooters drew a very long and very deep breath as they saw the victory finally achieved. These same rooters should also bring praise to fall on every head of the boys who played in the game, for surely Ohio strove together for the highly deemed victory over their ancient rivals. The deceptive double pass plays proved effective for Michigan in the second frame but Ohio courage seemed to bury Wolverine science with a fighting, scrapping band of Scarlet clad boys.

BARRETT
Center

This battle of twenty-two high strung men of Ohio and Michigan, ended as it should have, breaks playing little or no part in the final decision. Al Holman ran the team in fine fashion, as well as throwing some accurate and well timed forward passes. McConnell, Horn and Holcomb showed up well, all three driving and fighting hard for sixty minutes of grueling play. Barrett stood out on the Ohio line, (not meaning size, either) and fought back the Michigan attack many times.

Coach Sam Willaman had pointed the team to this the big game of the season, and by their willing spirit and their actual win the appetite for Michigan victories was greatly appeased.

Surprised by an alert and powerful Indiana team, Ohio, winner of its first three games, faltered, and was held to a scoreless tie. Caught off its stride the Bucks played ragged ball and barely averted being defeated. All departments of the Willaman coached squad were working poorly and the backs seemed to possess the proverbial "butter fingers". No less than ten fumbles cost the Bucks many valuable yards. The running and passing attacks presented a sad picture compared to the previous week's play. McConnell's punting was the outstanding feature of Ohio's play but the foot work of George Ross of Indiana was of equal quality.

The previously, strong Ohio line was pierced many times by the diminutive Indiana backs. The Hoosiers carried the ball to the 20 yard line in the second period but were checked by Horn's blocking their fourth down pass. The play zig-zagged back and forth throughout the game, mostly in Ohio's territory. Coffee furnished the longest run of the game, when he got away for a 20 yard sprint in the closing minutes of the game. The repeated stonewall actions of Sam Selby gave him the Noble Prize for Buckeye line play.

Statistics of the game revealed that Indiana outgained Ohio and made almost three times as many first downs.

PITTSBURGH 18

In the first battle ever waged between Ohio and the highly touted Panthers, the latter, led by Toby Uansa, kept their slate clean by a 16 point margin. The gridiron was a mass of mud and water but Uansa defied the elements and remained unstoppable throughout the afternoon. Parkinson, Pitt's powerful full-back, was also a big factor in Ohio's defeat. The game was still in its youth when Uansa slipped through the Ohio line and, cutting to the sideline, raced 65 yards for a touchdown. A second touchdown came as the result of a twenty yard pass from Rooney to Uansa, who ran the additional 17 yards across the line.

Rooney added three more points in the second period by a field goal from the 16 yard line. Each team scored a safety, which brought the total to 18-2.

The duel waged between the two Youngstown All-Americans, Fesler and Donchess, was declared a draw according to the opinions of most sport scribes who covered the game.

McConnell outpunted the Pitt efforts until Rooney was ushered in, who displayed booting par excellence.

The Pitt machine displayed a powerful offense and a stubborn defense, the two coupling together to form a team capable of standing up against the strongest in the country. The Ohioans put up a spirited fight but the efforts of Fesler, Nesser, Dill, Horn and Holcomb were to little avail.

The previous scoreless back-field of Ohio remained as such after the trouncing handed them by the Wildcats, with Fesler garnering the lone touchdown. From an Ohio standpoint the game seems to possess only two important items: the evercrushing, always scoring offense of Northwestern and the way our Wesley acquired those lonely six points. In the second period the touchdown-bound Wildcats were but a yard from the Ohio goal when the century dash took place. Fesler, picking up a fourth down fumble, was off, it seemed, before the men in Purple (and Sarlet too) realized what had happened. A single man took up the chase, but the fleet legs of Fesler carried him over the line with a substantial lead.

Bob Grady, playing his first Big Ten game, was the main-spring in the Buckeye offense, displaying a host of fight and drive. Stew Holcomb, Reese Dill, and Sam Selby played good football but seemed below the caliber of Northwestern's stellar play.

With Bergherm, Moore, and Burnstein at the helm of their attack, the Purple displayed a precise, well coached team, which played smoothly and cleanly. The Hanley coached crew turned in seventeen first downs to Ohio's five. The visitors used a wing back formation and from it ran many spinner plays. Bergherm accounted for two touchdowns, while Moore made the other tally.

The game certainly ran true to the old saying—the better team won.

Eight touchdowns and six goals after touchdowns rolled up a greater score in this one game than Ohio made in all of their other battles of the season. Ohio substituted frequently during the game, Fesler being the only regular to remain the entire sixty minutes.

Art Huston contributed the longest run of the afternoon when he sprinted 55 yards in the first quarter. Russ Taylor, sub full-back, counted for three touchdowns and played a hard driving game at all times.

Graf Barrett's toe was working to perfection, the big boy placing five out of his six attempts through the bars. The other four touchdowns were the work of McClure two, and Nesser and Grady one each.

Ujhelyi intercepted three Kenyon passes and played a good game on the line. Dud Stock, former Columbus Central high star, showed more spirit and played harder than any other player on the field. He fought against great odds and should be given all the credit that he deserves.

The Buckeyes used nothing but straight football, with an occasional forward pass cropping out. Practically every man on the squad saw action in this skirmish with the Episcopalians from Gambier.

This "breather" brushed up Ohio's offense for the final battle to be waged with Illinois. The game, however, gave Willaman a chance to look over his substitute material in an actual contest.

After starting the season in promising manner, Ohio was literally crushed by the Illini in the curtain event. It was the most decisive defeat that the Bucks had received in eight years.

The Illini worked smoothly, using hidden ball, spinner and delayed plays most effectively. The Ohio forward wall crumbled before this attack and were constantly blocked or fainted out of the play. Zuppke, the master of Illinois tactics, followed Pop Warner's double wing back system of play. Starting from their own forty yard line, the Illinois lads marched 60 yards in the first quarter with Mills accounting for the touchdown. Their second counter came in the second period when Robinson breezed over the last white marker. The goal was missed for the second time.

The other two touchdowns of the fray were the work of Yanuskus and Shultz respectively. A safety, the result of McConnell's blocked punt, added two more points to the Illini total.

Illinois' play reminded one of the workings of a well oiled machine. No one man stood out, but all fitted in smoothly and each played his part with decisive sureness. Frosty Peters did, however, given an exhibition of the triple threat type of player.

The men clad in scarlet and gray seemed to lack inspiration and failed to click with any precision. There were no outstanding players for Ohio, none of them playing a tolerable game.

COACH OLSEN

Despite the fact that Coach Olsen's team has finished the season at the weak end of the column, we want to praise them for their continual fight. Usually, it is hard to lose. When we lost this season, we lost only after a hard fight and we could leave the game with a satisfied feeling. Coach Olsen can be proud of his boys because they always gave their all in battle to the finish. The second Purdue game is one of the basketball classics we can ever remember.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

Ohio State's 1929-1930 Basketball Season can hardly be called a success when one considers that the Conference standing of the Buckeyes was far below usual for an Olsen coached team. Nevertheless the season was replete with thrills and exciting games from beginning to end. Every Scarlet and Gray contest was hard-fought and the score was close throughout. Many times did the crack of the gun cut short a belated Ohio rally that had brought Ohio within a few points of victory.

Coach Olsen turned out a much better team than the scores of the different games indicates. It was a fast, shifty aggregation displaying, in every game, a snappy and coherent team work and a defense that many times forced its opponents to resort to long shots. But all this is to no avail if a team can't get hold of the ball and that was just what was the matter with the Bucks—the lack of a tall center who could cope with the towering giants of the other Big Ten schools. The boys simply wore themselves out trying to get the ball and then they were too exhausted to work it down under their own basket.

Lowell Wrigley, a sophomore, was Coach Olsen's choice for center when the season began. But Wrig although the best on hand lacked considerably in height. However, he made up for his diminutiveness by playing a fast and heady floor game and above all he possessed a keen eye for the loop. Each game found Wrigley contributing his share to the Buckeye cause. This handicap of a tall center stood out in every game and in practically every game was the deciding factor. Every game found Ohio's opponents controlling the jump.

All in all the Scarlet and Gray team won four games and lost eleven during the season. Three of the victories were over non-Conference foes. Notre Dame and Ohio University fell before the Bucks in the first two games of the season. Army succumbed to the Ohioians in the latter part of the season. In the Conference Ohio was able only to overcome Minnesota, and thus ended in the cellar position.

Ohio may have finished in last place in the Conference but it did one thing that no other team came close to doing for on February 15th the Bucks led the great Purdue team, the Conference champs, through one of the most sensational and thrilling cage battles ever staged on the Collesium floor, until the last five seconds of play, when a slip in the Ohio defense gave the Purdue center the ball under his own basket and he dropped it in for the tying score. Then Purdue spurted in the overtime to cop the contest. The reason that Ohio was able to hold a team which only a week before had defeated it 60-14 was due to Jess Stewart whom Olsen recruited from the ranks in an attempt to stop the high scoring Purdue center, and as a result, Murphy, the lanky Boilermaker was able to score only three points until Stewart was ejected via the foul route in the last minute of the game. Stewart had the height that Ohio needed but he lacked a great deal in experience.

The Buckeyes opened the season with Ohio University and emerged the victor 26-24 after a hectic battle in which State clearly outplayed its opponents but missed a great many shots. Christmas vacation found Ohio entertaining Notre Dame and consequently spoiling a happy holiday season for the Irish by letting them down 29-22. The Buckeyes approached mid-season form in this game and fond hopes of a brilliant season arose in the hearts of the Scarlet and Gray followers. Next came a trip to the east where the Buckeyes lost two close contests to Pittsburg and Pennsylvania, two of the strongest teams in the east. At Pittsburg, Ohio forced Charley Hyatt and his teammates to go two overtime periods before ringing up a victory. The Conference opener followed this, with the boys losing the first two games and then beating Minnesota by a large score. Then followed a row of hard fought games all of which the Bucks dropped after nip and tuck battles. Ohio departed from the Conference season for a game with Army. This game found Ohio playing inspired ball, with Hinchman finding the loop regularly, Army was downed by one point. This game closed the Home season and the boys left to wind up the year with Wisconsin and Indiana. Ohio was defeated in both games and returned with the Conference cellar position.

Harold G. Olsen placed a team on the floor this year that was composed entirely of veterans with the exception of the center position. At forward he used Ervin, Evans, and Hinchman. These three men bore the brunt of the Ohio scoring. No matter which two of these were in the game, Ohio had a fast and smooth working combination. Hinchman's performance in the Army game will long be remembered. He scored half of Ohio's points to make a Buckeye victory possible. Ervin was the leading Ohio scorer for the season with 88 points. Evans and Hinchman will be lacking when Ohio takes the floor next season and their passing leaves vacancies which will be hard to fill.

Ohio's famous twins took care of the guard berths and they made up one of the best defensive combinations in collegiate basketball. It was the second year for these two, both having won letters as Sophomores. Larkin was constantly roaming about the floor breaking up passes. Fesler's work attracted attention throughout the Big Ten. Officials considered him the best defensive guard in the Conference.

The center position was rather undecided throughout the season and Olsen was constantly on the look-out for a tall man. Wrigley drew the assignment in most games but Jack Condon, another Sophomore, broke into several contests. Jess Stewart was discovered near the close of the season and saw service at center in a few games but he lacked experience. He has one more year.

Several members of the reserve squad also saw service in the Varsity games. A whole team could be made up of reserves who were added to the Varsity during the season. All these men will return next year and with a Freshman squad that was touted to be the best in years, Coach Olsen should have a great deal to look forward to next winter. In the meantime, he will be praying for a tall center to appear.

BASEBALL

Ohio State's 1929 Baseball Team, despite quite a few reversals at the hands of their Conference opponents closed a better than mediocre season. After getting a bad start, the team gathered a little momentum and gained the height of its power when it crushed Purdue, Ohio Wesleyan, Minnesota, Chicago, Wooster, and Michigan Aggies consecutively in May. The high point of the season was the Michigan game which Ohio lost 15-11. Ohio won exactly half of their games in the Western Conference thereby finishing with a percentage of five hundred percent.

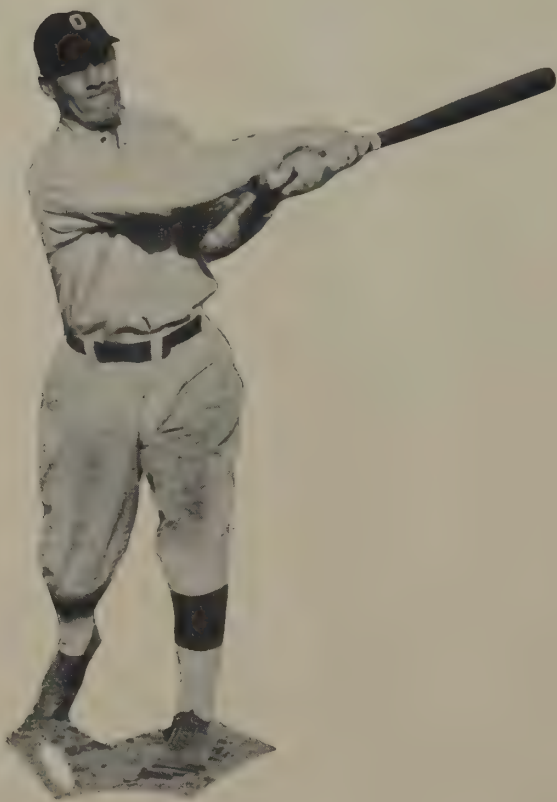

Ohio State lost its opener when Indiana walloped them to the tune of 2-4. The game was played on April fourth.

Ohio University found April sixth a pretty bad day when they bucked up against the Ohio State team and were let down to a 7-1 loss. Bill Kermode pitched a masterful game and his team mates backed him splendidly. Ohio University gained its lone tally in the first inning of the game as a result of errors committed by State fielders.

Taking advantage of poor fielding on the part of Ohio, Miami University downed the Bucks 7-4 in a game played in a drizzling rain. Ohio State outbatted the visitors but the latter's hits came at the opportune moments thereby causing the downfall of the Buckeye team. The game took place on April eighth.

Ohio State scored a notable triumph on the thirteenth of April when they beat Cornell 4-1. The Bucks scored two runs in their half of the first inning while Cornell made its tally in the same inning. It was the first and last for them. The final score was 4-1.

Indiana chose April nineteenth to show that they could lick us again. Coming from behind in the seventh inning, Indiana scored its second conference victory over Ohio by the score of 7-4. Kermode pitched airtight ball until the seventh, when the Hoosiers staged a rally netting them seven runs and the game.

April twentieth found the Purdue team ahead of the Buckeyes 9-4. The game was well played by the Boilermakers.

In a two day series with the Gopher team, April twenty-second and twenty-third, the Buckeyes proved their superiority by beating the Minnesota players 7-1 and 7-5. Ohio batting power reached its zenith in both these games when hits were produced at the needed moments.

April twenty-seventh found the Ohioans playing the Illinois team. Displaying tremendous batting power but lacking punch in the pinches, Ohio succumbed to the hard-fighting Illini batsmen by the score of 6-2. Illinois literally put the game in the bag when they scored four runs in the fifth inning. Ohio gained its two runs in the first through the grace of two hits, an error and a walk.

Chicago administered another Big Ten defeat to the tune of 4-3. The game, played on May fourth was hotly contested throughout. The Maroon team paved its way to a win through six errors made by Buckeye fielders.

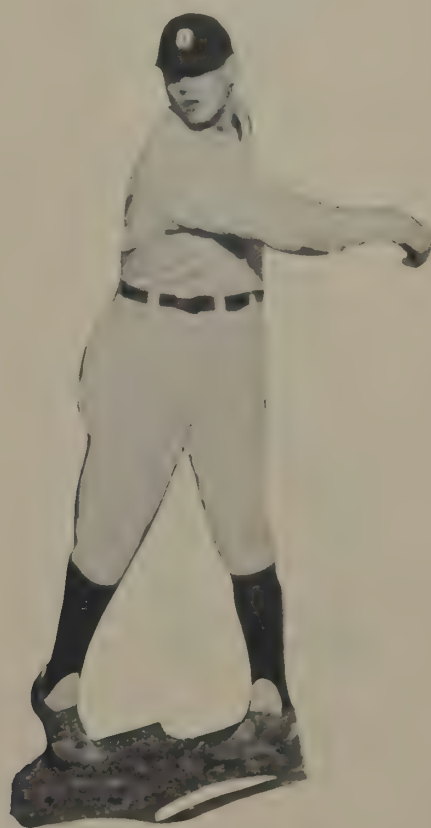

Playing perfectly behind the pitching of Kermode, Ohio avenged its former defeat by vanquishing the Purdue team on May eleventh, with Ohio scoring three runs to their opponents one. The game went along smoothly for eight innings with the score tied 1-1. In the eighth inning, however, Ohio made two runs in a combination of a three base hit by Hess, Riehl's single and a sacrifice hit by Fesler.

The Michigan game scheduled for May thirteenth was cancelled due to a heavy rain.

Ohio Wesleyan went down in defeat before a hard-hitting Buckeye nine on May fifteenth. Two home runs and a line drive by Hess helped to make the final score 6-3.

STULL

KERMODE

Ohio State lost to Meiji University 2-1, on May seventeenth. Fontaine pitched a good game, and although the boys from across the Pacific made less hits and committed more errors, errors made by the Bucks ruined his hopes for a win over the Japanese team and the continuance of their good May record.

Again rain interfered with the Buckeye schedule. Illinois booked to play the Ohio team on May eighteenth was unable to do so on account of the downpour.

Ohio Wesleyan found Ohio State a much stronger team on May twenty-fourth. This time Ohio Wesleyan scored 2 runs as against that of State's 10 runs.

Heavy-hitting by the Buckeye squad proved the important factor in the Ohio State's triumph over Chicago. The final score was 8-3. The game was played on May twenty-eighth.

Wooster was beaten by the State team on May thirtieth. In a marvelous exhibition of newly acquired fielding ability, the home team won by the score of 9-3.

The Michigan Aggies went down in defeat under the bats of the Buckeye squad on May thirty-first, when it amassed five points to the visitors four tallies.

Ohio State in a slugging duel, brought its season to a close and climaxed it by losing to the Michigan team 15-11. The game was full of thrills and rather erratic fielding. The Wolverines made 8 runs in one inning, and our homers were accounted for by Fesler, Tittler, and Fontaine.

Varsity O's were awarded to Widdefield, Fesler, Genger, Riehl, Stull, Hinchman, Hess, Kermode, Sill, Tittel, and Miller. Howell received the manager's O.

Ohio State's 1929 track team was the greatest ever produced here. Besides winning the National Collegiate team championship and four individual title's, world's records came to Ohio when George Simpson stepped a 9.4 hundred, bettering the mark which had stood for twenty-three years, and tied the two-twenty record of 20.6. Dick Rockaway, at the Big Ten meet, became the first hurdler in the world to step the low hurdles in under 23 seconds. The flying Cincinnati rambled over the barriers in 22.8. Pete Rasmus, in winning the discus throw at the National Collegiate meet, tossed the platter out 159 feet 1 7-8 inches, bettering the accepted world's record, but this mark had been broken earlier in the year by Eric Krenz of Stanford and Ed Moeller of Washington, both of whom finished behind him at Chicago.

A CLOSE ONE

The Buckeye track men began the year which ended so gloriously at Chicago by overwhelming Ohio Wesleyan in an indoor meet. In twelve events, the Scarlet and Gray scored seven firsts and seven second places. Dick Rockaway was the leading scorer, winning both hurdles races. Frank Hays won the half, John Long the quarter, and Lyman Baker and Cloyce Donnel tied for first in the two-mile. George Simpson tied with Norm Lambacher for the two-twenty honors.

In the quadrangular meet, George Simpson won the forty-yard dash, and set a meet record. Lyman Baker broke another meet record in winning the two-mile. Wisconsin won the meet, with Ohio third. The meet turned into a gun-jumping nightmare, and the Ohioans were greatly handicapped by their habit of waiting for the gun to go off. Howie Kriss flashed at West Virginia, beating his running-mate, Simpson, in a 7.2 seventy, which tied the indoor intercollegiate record. Ohio's sprint relay team, composed of Jess Fazekas, Frank Pierce, Kriss, and Simpson, made its first appearance of the year, and won easily. Kent Crooks gathered fourteen points in the two hurdles events, and the high and broad jump, to lead the team in scoring. The score was $70\frac{1}{2}$ to $25\frac{1}{4}$.

Indiana was easily defeated, $40\frac{1}{2}$ to $24\frac{1}{2}$, in a dual meet the next week. Emerson Emrich, who vaulted 12 feet $5\frac{1}{4}$ inches to break the field house record, and Simpson, who won the sixty-yard dash in 6.3 seconds, were the Ohio stars. At the conference indoor meet, Ohio's entries failed to show very impressively. George Simpson repeated his victory of the year before in the sixty, running 6.2 to tie the conference and American record. The team-standing was sixth, Kent Crooks placing fourth in the high hurdles and the mile relay team also getting into the scoring to pile up the only Ohio points aside from Simpson's.

George Simpson won the seventy-five yard dash and Dick Rockaway the high hurdles, to feature the Ohio showing at the Illinois relays. Two firsts, two seconds, one third, and a fourth place made up the Ohio total.

Ohio Wesleyan opened the outdoor season as well as the indoor year. The Bishops could only get one first place, this in the high jump, while the Ohio Staters were victorious in all the other events. In the feature races of the day, George Simpson defeated the Ohio Conference champion, Norm Lambacher, in both sprints, while Dick Rockaway was trouncing Dit Kane, National Collegiate high hurdles champion, in both the hurdles races. In the quarter, half, and mile, both first and second went to the Columbus team. The final score was 105 to 26.

Pitt's track men were turned back $93\frac{1}{2}$ to $41\frac{1}{2}$, five firsts going to Pitt and ten to Ohio. George Simpson broke his own university records in both sprints to whip Pete Bowen, I. C. 4-A and National A. A. U. champ, running the hundred in 9.5 and the furlong in 20.6. Bowen won his own event, the quarter, although Fred Strother pushed him hard. Pete Rasmus flipped the discus 153 feet to shatter his own field record, while Dick Rockaway won the low hurdles in 23.6, the beginning of his record-breaking season.

The dual meet season ended at Annapolis when Ohio trounced the Navy, winning ten events. Emerson Emrich shattered the university record by vaulting 12 feet $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches. Simpson and Rockaway both won two firsts.

In the outdoor quadrangular meet, Ohio had better success than indoors. Chicago, the second team, trailed the Bucks with 43 points to Ohio's $73\frac{3}{4}$. Simpson and Rockaway won two events apiece, while Gil Huston and Kent Crooks tied for first in the broad jump. Lyman Baker repeated his indoor victory in the two-mile, Pete Rasmus won the discus, and Joe Ujhelyi took the hammer throw.

FIRST HURDLE

SIMPSON'S 9.4 HUNDRED

At the Ohio Relays, the home team was much in evidence. George Simpson won an exhibition hundred from Pete Bowen of Pitt, Jack Elder of Notre Dame, and Don Bennet of Toledo Libbey High, the National Interscholastic dash champion, now a freshman at Ohio State, and who is expected to fill Simpson's shoes. Simpson's time was 9.5. The shuttle hurdle team set a new world's record of 1 minute 1.8 seconds, with Dick Rockaway, Al Petersilge, Kent Crooks, and Frank Pierce making up the timber-topping squad. The sprint relay team won the 880-yard relay, and was second to Illinois in the quarter-mile relay. A mistake on the third baton-exchange cost the Ohioans victory in the shorter race, since they were in the lead when it happened. Kriss, Strother, Rockaway, and Simpson made up the winning half-mile relay team.

The Ohio sprint relay quartet were victorious in both relays at the Penn Relays. George Simpson beat the best the East had to offer in a 9.6 hundred, and won looking over his shoulder. The shuttle hurdle team won its heat in faster time than the final, but a slip caused by wet grass kept the Ohioans out of the finals they could probably have won in a walk. If this meet had been judged on a team basis, Ohio would have won easily, since the Scarlet and Gray entries scored more points than any other team.

Because of its wealth of good material in the running events, Illinois won the outdoor Big Ten meet, with Ohio State second. Dick Rockaway won the high hurdles in 14.8, and kicked

ANOTHER VICTORY

Charlie Brookins's old record into the gutter when he flew over the low barriers in 22.8. He won his semi-final in 23.3 the day before, and showed that the record was tottering.

Eddie Tolan, dusky Michigan star, pulled a surprise in the hundred by beating Simpson in 9.5. Simpson had pointed for the National Collegiate meet, which accounts for his defeat, but he redeemed himself by winning the furlong in 20.6, tying the world record set in 1926 by Roland Locke. Pete Rasmus won the discus title for the third time. Illinois gathered 51½ points to 39½ for Ohio.

With Stanford missing, Ohio State won the National Collegiate track and field meet at Chicago—the first time in several years that the title had not gone to a Pacific coast team. Fifty points were rolled up by the Ohio aces, Washington trailing with 42, and Illinois, Western Conference champion, placing third with 35½.

George Simpson won the hundred in 9.4, a new world's record, from a flashy field by inches, and then limped in to a 20.8 victory in the two-twenty after pulling a tendon twenty yards from the finish. If he had not pulled a tendon, he would certainly have battered out a new furlong record, as his finish is always his best bet. Dick Rockaway climbed the high hurdles in 14.7 to be first home, but overconfidence lost him the low. Steve Anderson won them in 23.3, with Rockaway second. His victory in record-breaking time at the Big Ten meet had made Rockaway the favorite in the lows, but Anderson nosed him out. Pete Rasmus, the lanky Finn from Ashabula Harbor, chosen honorary captain by the letter-men before the team left Columbus, ended his career by winning the discus throw from the greatest field ever assembled. His 159 feet 17-8 inches throw broke the recognized world's record, but this had been broken earlier in the year, and so his record will not stand.

CROSS COUNTRY

Ohio State's cross-country team opened its 1929 season with a victory over Pittsburgh and West Virginia Nov. 2, the final score being Ohio 24, West Virginia 44, and Pitt 58. The first three places went to Buckeye runners, Captain Greg Wotschak and Earl Hanover tying for first, with Gib Soler gaining third place through a headlong sprint down the last hill. Homer White and Bill Heintz, who rounded out the Ohio scorers, placed eighth and tenth respectively, and John Durrigg, Tom McCullough, Harold Woerhle, and Chuck Alexander all followed Heintz in. The race was run in the cold, driving rain which continued all day and helped make the football game that afternoon such an unpleasant spectacle. Gus Moore, National A. A. U. cross-country champion, had been expected to run on the Pitt team, but was, fortunately or unfortunately, ineligible.

The second meet of the year was the annual triangular, held at Ann Arbor Nov. 9. The Scarlet and Gray harriers repeated their score of the week before, and again had the first three men across the finish line. Michigan hauled in 38 points to take second, with Illinois last with a score of 64. Captain Wotschak and Hanover stayed out in front, but Bill Heintz came up from the ruck to tie for first with them in 27.01 for the five miles. The real feature of the meet, from an Ohio standpoint, was the showing of Myron Moorehead, who hadn't even been taken on the Pittsburgh trip, but who placed sixth close behind two Michigan men. Chuck Alexander placed twelfth to finish out the team score. Solerand Woerhle trailed him, with Durigg and McCullough further back.

A dual meet with Indiana had been scheduled for the next week-end, but Coach Castleman thought his team should defend its National Junior A. A. U. title, won the year before at Cincinnati. Indiana agreed to send its team down there instead of here, and score the men of the two teams as in a dual meet. Both as a dual meet and as the A. A. U. meet it was a disappointment. Ypsilanti won the A. A. U. title easily, and Indiana won the dual meet 23-33. Hanover was unable to finish, because of a sprain received when he fell down one of the Cincinnati hills, and the other two Ohio stars, Wotschak and Heintz, were barred from competing with the Ohio team for the A. A. U. championship because they had been members of the championship team of the year before. They ran as individuals, placing eighth and ninth to lead in the Columbus team. Roderick Leas and Eddie Clapman led the Hoosiers by placing first and second in the meet. Moorehead and White of Ohio placed fourteenth and fifteenth, but there were several Hoosiers ahead of them.

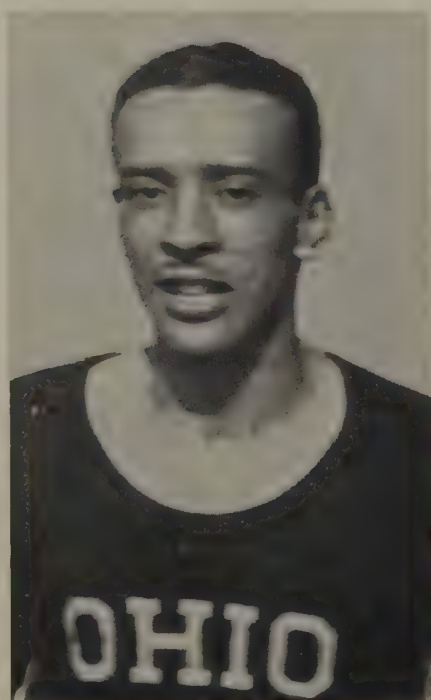

Indiana made it two Western Conference cross-country titles in a row November 23 on the Stadium course when the Hoosiers placed four men in the first ten to score 36 points, one of the lowest scores in the History of the meet. Only twice has a Western Conference school made a lower score than that in winning the meet. Wisconsin was second with 57, a score which would have been good enough to win most years, and Michigan's 109 gave the Wolverines third ahead of Ohio with 110. Orvil Martin, Purdue's great distance runner, headed the field in, with Leas and Clapman of Indiana second and third, and Dale Letts of Chicago fourth. Martin's time for the five miles was 26-23, a new course record. The old record had been set by Dave Abbott of Illinois, conference cross-country and two-mile champ last year, in the 1928 triangular meet.

Wotschak, running his last cross-country race for Ohio, led in the team in eleventh place. Hanover was fourteenth, Heintz twenty-sixth, Moorehead twenty-seventh, and White thirty-second. Besides the unpleasant sensation of being beaten by Michigan's weak team after easily defeating them earlier, the meet was the occasion of general team let-down. On previous times, all five of the Ohio runners should have been in the first fifteen, which would have placed the Buckeyes second instead of fourth. It was the poorest race of the year for every man on the Ohio team. Every man has his off day, of course, but the day of the Conference meet is a poor time to have it.

At the close of the season, Greg Wotschak, who had been chosen field leader of the team for every meet, was elected honorary captain. Varsity O's were awarded to Wotschak, Earl Hanover, Bill Heintz, Myron Moorehead, Homer White, Gib Soler, Harold Woerhl, and Charles Alexander, with Emil Linek getting the managerial O. Wotschak, Soler, Woerhl, and Alexander are seniors, but with Hanover, Heintz, Moorehead, White, Jim Dille, McCullough and Durigg in addition to a good freshman team, the outlook for next year is good.

Minor Sports

TENNIS

Hampered by a season of many postponed games because of rain, the Buckeye racquet wielders garnered but four contests throughout the year. One of these was a Western Conference opponent while the others were non-conference wins.

The Big Ten meet, successfully staged by Ohio State on May 23-24-25, drew a large crowd and featured the play of George Lott, former Davis Cup player and No. 2 in the national ranking. Lott easily won the singles title and participated in an exhibition match with Carl Dennison, junior ranking freshman.

The Ohio State tennis outfit was composed, for the most part, of players inexperienced in Western Conference competition. Chuck Okerbloom, the captain, was the only veteran, the other members all being sophomores.

Those who were awarded their Varsity "O" for their services were Chuck Okerbloom, William Brown, H. B. Dierdorff, Leonard Fox, John Brown, and Harold Ziegler. Okerbloom was unanimously chosen honorary captain for the season and also for the season of 1930.

The squad was under the tutorship of Herman Wirthwein and the varsity manager was Kalen.

GOLF — 1929

The Ohio State varsity golf team enjoyed a fairly successful season with the four outstanding men (Alan Loop, Ted Wilson, George Petuska, and Gene Shannon) being awarded Varsity O's at the end of varsity competition. Manager Olsen received a manager's letter.

The team won two and lost four of their contests. In the high spot of the season, the Western Conference meet, the team acquired fourth place, individual scores being 376 by Loop, 324 by Wilson, 357 by Petuska, and 356 by Shannon.

Student Managers for the 1929 season were: Senior, Harry Olsen; Junior, Tom Gibson; Sophomore, Frank Foster, and Freshman, W. C. Becker.

VARSIITY FENCING

Faced with the necessity of building a team from inexperienced material, Dr. Frank Riebel, fencing coach, set to work to produce a fencing team that might uphold the truly enviable records which his previous teams had made. Since fencing was instituted at Ohio State in 1922, the teams have finished twice in first place, twice in second, twice in third, and once in a tie for fourth.

The season began auspiciously with victories over Wittenberg, Michigan State, and Purdue. Then the going got rough and the squad fell before Michigan, Illinois, and Chicago in close matches. In the conference championships held at Chicago, the team placed sixth. Some solace, however, was found in the National Intercollegiate semifinals where the duelling team defeated Navy, Princeton, Pennsylvania, and Columbia.

The 1930 squad was composed of John Jones, Paul Jones, and D'Amanto D'Amore in the foils; Jacques Fouré and John Riebel in sabre; and John Riebel and Paul Jones in duelling.

With all these boys returning next year, fencing at Ohio State should again be seen at its peak.

GYMNASTICS

Ohio State's Gymnastic team took fifty percent of their meets this year and placed fourth in the annual conference meet. In their first meet they met Ohio Wesleyan at Delaware on February first; Geissman, high point man with 215 points, took first place on the mats, Chavis on the horizontal bars and flying rings, Adrian on the side rings, and Pixley with the Indian Clubs. The Scarlet and Gray took five out of six first places and four out of six second places. The final score was Ohio 1126.5, Wesleyan 940.25. Purdue was the next victim of the Buckeyes, who defeated them 1121.2 to 1105.4; Geissman, Adrian, Chavis, Osolin, and Coons performed brilliantly. After the Purdue meet, which took place on February eighth, Ohio invaded the University of Illinois, but were repulsed, losing by a score of 1221.5 to 1055. They then went on to meet Chicago, but fared little better; for they lost by a score of 1243.25 to 1107.

Headley, Coons, Chavis, Geissman, Osolin, Adrian, and Pixley all won varsity "O's". Horton was awarded an "O" for his Senior Managerial services.

VAR SITY WRESTLING

The varsity wrestlers of Ohio State experienced a fairly successful season this year, winning six of their eight meets. Here are the results: January 11, Ohio defeated Western Reserve at Cleveland, 28 to 0; January 18, Ohio lost to Michigan here in Columbus, by a score of 16 to 14; January 25, Ohio defeated West Virginia in Columbus, 22 to 6; February 1, Ohio defeated Purdue at Purdue, by a score of 17 to 11; February 8, Ohio defeated Northwestern at Evanston, 31 to 3; February 15, Ohio defeated Cornell at Cornell, by a score of 21 to 11; March 1, Ohio lost to Indiana in Columbus, by a score of 15 to 11; March 8, Ohio defeated Minnesota in Columbus, by a score of 20½ to 7½.

Fairall, the varsity heavyweight, made a splendid record, losing only one match. Hall of the 155 pound class also lost but one match. The other boys made the wonderful showings necessary to complete a successful season. Not one defaulted. Probable Varsity "O" winners were Waldschmidt, Tiffany, Watters, Hall, Sloan, Tarr, Bachman, Fairall, Helgeron, Watters, Wilson, and Crow.

R I F L E

Under the very capable coaching of Capt. Don Pedro Branson of the Military Department, the Varsity Rifle Team turned in a total of forty wins in forty-two matches. The local snipers won the Western Conference title, setting a new Conference record in doing so. John Jordan was awarded honors for being the high point man in the Big Ten. The boys were also victorious in the Fifth Corps Area match. Ohio set world's records for five and ten men teams.

The following men participated in Varsity competition: John Jordan, Robert Neill, A. K. Miller, A. L. Treat, Ralph Davidson, R. C. Shipman, E. K. Wasserman, H. Rumple, Alvin Williams, F. S. McWhinney.

S O C C E R

Though the year 1929 found the soccer team depleted of many of its veterans an increase of interest was noticed. A larger squad turned out than in previous years and adequate ground was granted to the players. Another fortunate happening fell to the lot of the Soccerites. Mr. Harry Castle of Oxford, England, was secured to coach the team. Mr. Staley, veteran Soccer coach cooperated with him in the coaching assignment. The only veterans from the previous season were goalies, Osber and Lane; fullback, Magnus; halfback, Beregzazy; and forward linesmen, Katonak, Wassertheurer, Zesiger, and Meissner.

In actual competition with collegiate teams, we were defeated by the Illini by the score of 4-0, and 8-0. However the team beat most of their local opponents and fought hard in every encounter.

P O L O

Playing their first season as a recognized varsity sport, the Ohio State Varsity Polo Team closed a successful season, winning five contests out of seven starts, and running up heavy scores on each team played.

Only one Big Ten team was met, but the horsemen of the Scarlet and Gray were victorious, in trimming their opponents, the University of Chicago. The Ohio State lads outsmarted and out galloped the Maroon jerseyed poloists in every department. The team from the Windy city displayed good polo at times but were unable to cope with the spectacular antics of the Ohio men. Other games won during the season were from the Hebron Club and the Columbus Polo Club. Men receiving letters included Baron, Abbott, Captain Caldwell, Gaunder, Hodges, Kinvinien, Liming, Poston, Rice, Schmink, and Zink.

FRESHMAN FOOTBALL

Last Fall, the Frosh Footballers gave Coach Willamen something to look forward to when the next Conference season rolls around. Ernie Godfrey began his reign as freshman football coach by turning out one of the greatest yearling teams in Ohio State's history; and he did not have trouble finding material to do so. Such men as Carroll, Ehrensberger, Ferrall, Hinchman, Mandula, Campbell, McKay, Nasman, Chizek, Gaskill, Russ, Sola, Varner, Welever, Woxman should do much to keep the grey hairs from Salem Sam's head during the next three years.

The following is a list of the men who received numerals and sweaters: Bryant, Campbell, Carroll, Cartlidge, Condon, Carmody, Chizek, Demetree, Diehl, Hernstein, Hedderly, Hinchman, Hoffman, Howell, Kirk, Klemner, Johnson, Lukz, Mandula, Mazaika, Marshall, McKay, Meineer, R. Miller, W. Miller, Munster, Nasman, Pettay, Plematias, Popeka, Richardson, Russ, Salvaterra, Smith, Sola, Steiner, Treat, Van Blaricon, Varner, Welever, Wilcox, Woxman, Woodward, Williams, Embry, Ehrensberger, Ferguson, Fried, Ferrall, Fouts, Gardner, Gaskill, Greenberg.

Harwood, James, Mahaffey, Rinker were awarded sweaters and numerals for their services as managers.

FRESHMAN BASKETBALL

The Frosh floor squad, coached by Clarence McDonald, produced what appears to be some high class basketeers who should develop rapidly into Big Ten material. It is unfair to designate any team in particular, but mention should be made of those who displayed outstanding ability. From Columbus, Lew Hinchman and Edmund Lakin showed that they had a very good idea of what the game was about, while Chizek, Ferrall, Klemner, Lipinski, Mattison, Ryan, and Strother, all of whom hail from foreign parts, showed up exceptionally well. The entire squad which received awards was composed of the following men: Sweaters and Numerals: Herbert Brown, David Chizek, Junius Ferrall, James Gardner, Lewis Hinchman, George Hoffer, Lester Klemner, Edmund Lakin, Wenceslaus Lipinski, John Lively, George Mandula, Howard Mattison, Charles Parker, Brooks Paulsey, Edwin Ryan, Eugene Strother, Robert Withrow, Sam Chalfie (Mgr.) Numerals Only: Robert Elberfeld (Mgr.), Richard Thompson (Mgr.), Harry Witheringer (Mgr.).

FRESHMAN BASEBALL

The Freshman Baseball team, coached by Mr. Henry Taylor, with the assistance of Mr. Bruce Blanchard, due to conference rulings not allowing Freshmen to participate in games with other schools contented itself with playing the Sophomore and Varsity teams. At all times a good showing was made, and a number of men who appeared to be of varsity calibre were uncovered. Chief among these are Arthur Weisheimer, a catcher and Eugene Fichter. Those who receive their Freshman awards are:

Sweaters and numerals: Arthur Weisheimer, Lowell Wrigley, Henry Young, John Howell, Harold Maughiman, John MacQueen, Carl Baumgartner, Jack Condon, Walter Denny, George Eiselstein, Eugene Fichter, Arthur LaFlame, Charles Leedham, Richard Lindsay, William Miller, Joseph Opsatnik, George Proshek, Bernard Sperber, George Thompson.

FRESHMAN TRACK

Although the Freshman Tracksters started off the indoor season with defeats at the hands of Illinois and Wisconsin, the amount of material uncovered in the events more than made up for the defeats. The Illinois score resulted with Illinois amassing 46½ points while the Ohio Team finished with only 43½. The Wisconsin-Ohio meet ended with Ohio at the tail end with 25 points while Wisconsin gathered 74 markers to win the contest. Among the likely candidates for future varsity berths are Vernon, Lewis, Richards, Bruce, Black, Felbinger, Fallin, and Worstell.

FRESHMAN CROSS COUNTRY

Under the direction of Coach Sam H. Cobb, the frosh Cross Country team showed some promise of developing excellent material for the Varsity Cross Country and Track teams. In the several time trials made, Franklin Smith was at all times the winner in the most important trials. However, William Bloor, Richard Womder, Michael Lorenzo, John Scerba, James Augenstein, and Paul Brooke furnished him with such excellent competition that Smith's record should be partially credited to his team-mates. The records made could have been much improved were it not for the rain and bad weather that caused slow track conditions. Franklin Smith was elected Captain of the Team, and was the recipient of the statuette to the best Frosh harrier with the best scholastic record. Coach Cobb is to be congratulated and commended for the friendly spirit that at all times existed and exists between him and the boys that took instruction under him. His interest and excellent advice spurred more boys on to better records. Mr. Cobb was assisted in his work by Managers Philip Sammeth, James Handley, and Jack Harig.

FRESHMAN WRESTLING

Twenty-six men survived the eliminations of the freshman wrestling tournament and made places for themselves on the Ohio State freshman wrestling squad. Sweaters and numerals were awarded those who won first places in their respective weights, while numerals and the privilege of buying sweaters from the Ohio State Athletic Association were allowed those who placed second and third. Some of the men who placed fourth managed to secure numerals by their merit. Here are the results of the tournament: 115 Pound Class—D. Sterner, first; D. Ward, second; Romsche, third. 125 Pound Class—G. Stewart, first; R. Rhoades, second, C. McDowell, third. 135 Pound Class—L. Blanchard, first; M. Deddish, second; J. Singer, third. 145 Pound Class—F. Ruddy, first; C. Hart, second; G. Allen, third; R. McIntyre, fourth. 155 Pound Class—Herschler, first, captain; E. Neutzling, second; S. Weiss, third. 165 Pound Class—F. Bedford, first; E. Colucci, second; A. Cowden, third; W. Reichbauer, fourth. 175 Pound Class—T. Moorehead, first; Hamilton, second; W. Barrett, third. 185 Pound Class—C. J. Sola, first; R. Van Balricon, second; J. Jibiden, third.

E. Kane and J. Ratner were awarded sweaters and numerals for their managerial services.

INTRAMURAL DEPARTMENT

Although the sports program offered by the Intramural Department is large, it is not at the present time so diversified as to permit the participation of many of the students. With the approval of the new building plans of the Athletic Board, the future for recreational activities has remarkably brightened. In addition to the Physical Education and Natatorium Buildings, the construction of which will commence in a few months, a Basketball and Intramural Sports Building is being contemplated as well as a University golf course. Such a program in the near future should provide facilities for the regular exercise, according to his fancy, of every University student and would enable the men of Ohio to compete on a par with other Western Conference teams.

INTRAMURAL FESTIVAL

Commanding its usual large participation of students, the annual Intramural Festival of 1929 under the direction of George Shellabarger was marked by a high representation among the different fraternities. For the third consecutive year, the members of Phi Kappa Psi succeeded in amassing the highest point score. Next in standing was Sigma Alpha Epsilon with Alpha Chi Rho and Sigma Chi running third and fourth.

With Fred Machetanz as high point man of the evening, the Phi Psis took first in four events, including a relay tie with the Sig Alphas, who defeated the Cleveland Indians for the University Basketball Championship. Point-getters for the winners of the Festival were Machetanz, who placed first in the high jump and hurdles, and Barratt who captured the shotput event. Ansley of Sigma Alpha Epsilon won the 35 yard and 220 yard dashes, with Richards of the same group running first in the 440 stretch.

The annual Inter-fraternity Sing was offered as an event of the Festival with Phi Kappa Psi out-harmonizing Sigma Chi and Pi Kappa Alpha to add another cup to its evening's collection. Sororities singing in the finals were Kappa Alpha Theta, Theta Upsilon, and Pi Beta Phi, an event won by the girls from the Theta House.

BOXING INTRAMURALS

Climaxing the most successful season of Intramural boxing in Ohio State history, the big fistic carnival, Fite Nite, presented an excellent exhibition of the manly art before a large crowd of students and faculty who packed the gymnasium to view the finals of the University Championships. Ringside excitement waxed high as the show progressed, the screams of women mingling with the shouting of men as punches were given and received by the cream of University pugilists.

A feature of the fighting was the technical knock-out of Johnny McEntee, Sig Alpha 160 pound title-holder, by Joe Benis of Zeta Beta Tau. Completely kicking over of the dope bucket, the newcomer hammered his opponent so unmercifully that the referee called a halt to the scrap in the middle of the third round and ended the biggest thrill of the evening. Joe's applause at the close of the fracas atoned for the loud ovation given McEntee as he entered the ring, and acclaimed the popularity of the new title-holder.

The decisive victory of Milt Zeckhauser in defending his heavyweight crown from Charley Kazmerchak was another high-point in the evening's entertainment, the mysterious aspirant being resolved to a pulp by the powerful punches of the Sigma Alpha Mu heavy.

BASKETBALL

Among the first in point of popularity of the Intramural Sports is basketball. A total of 225 teams entered the competition which ran throughout the winter. The final matches for the University Championship were played in the Coliseum on the occasion of the Intramural Festival with Sigma Alpha Epsilon and the inevitable Cleveland Indians as contender. For the second consecutive year, the Indians played in the Championship conflict but were taken over by the superior play of the Sig Alpha machine. Delta Sigma Phi was victorious over Omega Tau Sigma for the Class "B" title and Delta Upsilon was awarded the Class "C" trophy after its defeat of Theta Kappa Phi. Foul shooting Intramurals were won by the Indians with Alpha Chi Rho as runner-up.

CLEVELAND INDIANS

SPEEDBALL

Dominating the fall sport program, speedball has attained great popularity since its comparatively recent adoption at Ohio State. For the first time in three years, Phi Gamma Delta failed to annex this title, meeting defeat at the hands of Alpha Phi Delta in the final contest by a score of one point. A feature match was the Freshman Championship play between Zeta Beta Tau and Sigma Alpha Mu, the latter emerging victorious from a field of mud.

PLAYGROUND BASEBALL

The defeat of the Cleveland Indians' playground baseball team by Alpha Chi Rho marked the culmination of the most popular spring sport. Haynes of Alpha Chi Rho lead his team to victory against their foremost rivals, after sweeping through a season's competition in which a total of ninety-eight teams were entered.

ALPHA CHI RHO

THETA XI

RIFLE

In out-shooting Sigma Delta Rho, Theta Xi, an Engineering fraternity, annexed the University Rifle Championship Title for the second time. High scores during the season were made by Ralph Schwartz of Alpha Zeta, C. W. Albrecht of Sigma Delta Rho, H. Born of Phi Delta Theta, and C. Broeker, independent.

BOWLING

Second only to basketball as the most popular Intramural sport, bowling boasted a participation of 257 teams. The University Championship was won by the department of Metallurgy team with Pi Kappa Phi as the fraternity champions, Phi Gamma Delta taking defeat in the final match. Phi Kappa Tau and Sigma Alpha Mu were the champions of Class B and C respectively.

DENNISON

TENNIS

Intramural tennis competition last spring revealed a wealth of talent in the racquet art. Outstanding in his play was Carl Dennison, a freshman of Phi Kappa Psi, who won the Frosh title and as mate of Sam Lessam, defeated Brown and Lyman of Kappa Sigma for the doubles title. The most bitterly contested match of the tournament was the defeat of Silverman, Zeta Beta Tau, by Davis, an independent, for the Men's Singles title.

LESSAM

GOLF

The University golf singles title was won by Robert Kepler of Delta Upsilon, who defeated Don Kepple, Phi Gamma Delta. Theron Green and Millholland of Kappa Sigma nosed out Brust and Tapper of Sigma Pi for the doubles championship. The great interest in golf among college students has created a demand for a University Golf course.

PENTATHLON

Led by Jack Rockaway, the Phi Psis walked off with first place in the Pentathlon and again proved themselves the cream of Intramural tracksters with Sigma Pi running second in total points scored. The popularity of the Pentathlon was evidenced by the large number of entrants, among whom was a wealth of athletic talent. Uncertainty of the result until the very end of the meet adds much to the thrills of the competition. Each contestant is permitted to choose participation in five out of the six events, the work of the team receiving more emphasis than that of the individual star. Freshman trackmen were allowed to compete for their Fraternities in this carnival.

CARRODI

SWIMMING MEET

Competing against a field of entrants and taking honors in large chunks, Bill Carrodi, swimming as an independent, proved himself a one-man team. He placed first in the 40-yard dash, back stroke, and breast stroke. The University Championship was awarded to Sigma Alpha Epsilon, being second to Carrodi in total points scored. Phi Kappa Sigma finished as runner-up to the Sig Alphas with a win in the relay. Davie, Sigma Pi, won the plunge while Ford of Sigma Alpha Epsilon placed first in fancy diving. With the completion of the new Natatorium, Intramural water sports will undoubtedly command a large participation among students.

Modern educators point to the need for participation of every student in at least one seasonal sport. The intramural department hopes that by offering a variety of seasonal sports that each student may develop skill in several sports which will be of health and recreational value after college.

The women's athletic program at the Ohio State University has changed markedly within the last five years. A variety of sports has been added and a larger group of students has enrolled for this voluntary activity. The addition of new sports gives greater opportunity for students to participate in activities which may be fitted to their capacities and interests.

At present the student interested in individual sports may have her choice of swimming, golf, riding, tennis, field, and track, while those who like team competition may swing a hockey stick, throw a basketball or baseball with their team-mates. The swimming pool, tennis courts, bowling alleys, and the athletic field are all available to the students at a nominal fee.

The social contacts made while participating in these activities is especially valuable in a university of this size, where the individual is only too likely to be limited to her own particular group. No restrictions are placed on the nature of the organization entering a team, as groups from dormitories, rooming houses, and all campus organizations including professional and social sororities, are eligible.

SPRING INTRAMURALS

Wildah Turnbull was intramural manager for last spring quarter. The activities offered were baseball, tennis singles and doubles, horseshoes, track and field meet, golf and archery.

In baseball fourteen sorority teams entered in addition to four independent teams. The Neophytes, with Florence Carey, Marie McBride, Orrha Smith, Helen Cole, Evelyn Dillon, Leonore Hall, Sally Jordan, Antoinette Lowry, Helen Manahan, Ellen Ross, Ruth Cammerer, Narda Fischer and Loretta Zettler on their team were victorious. The Chi Omegas, with Vivian Ford, Ruth Graf, Virginia Harness, Lucille Stoll, Maxine Wigner, Isabel Clause, Carolyn Hetrick, Elizabeth Millholland, Polly Price, Helen Tenney, Dorothy Coffman, and Dortha Palmer were runners up.

In the tennis singles, twenty-one girls entered with Mary Korn winning, and Eleanor Wilcox representing Kappa Alpha Theta as runner up. Fourteen teams entered the tennis doubles with Irma Dewald and Catherine Minton of Zeta Tau Alpha winners, and Sigma Kappa represented by Dorothy Inscho and Alice Moore as runners up.

Six teams entered the horseshoe contest. The turtles with Mildred VanNest and Esther won, and the Neophytes with Florence Carey and Marie McBride were runners up.

FALL INTRAMURALS

All girls who were out for practice were eligible to play on the class hockey teams this year. Eighty girls came under the required specifications for the teams.

The Senior team comprised Gladys Brintlinger, Marjorie Biddle, Mary Korn, Henrietta Wilson, Marguise McCleary, Betty Greene, Virginia Gill, Evelyn Boggess, Helen Tenney, Catherine Stofer, Lucille Nixon and Wilma Snider.

The Junior team, winners of the class tournament, was composed of Rosalie Freedman, Alice Selby, Clara Schneider, Sally Ervin, Marion Riggs, Gertrude Chandler, Eleanor Hall, Wildah Turnbull, Mary Hauck, Rose Boczek, Florabelle Fundaberg, Ethel Meermens, Gertrude Walker, Geraldine Missback, Margaret Anderson, Agnes McGavaran, Twila Hessin and Mary Parrott.

The Sophomore team was represented by the following: Helen Cole, Mary Schofield, Evelyn Dillon, Helen Hunter, Dorothy Coffman, Margaret Schoen, Eileen Littrell, Sara Gilgen, Delee McKinley, Olive Gill, Warrine Eastburn, Mary Gehring, Sarabeth Shaw, Leabeth Taylor, Ruth Cammerer, Jean Ervin, Elizabeth Smith, Mary Hambleton and Rebecca Tapp.

More Freshmen came out for class hockey than any other class. Among those who played were: Edna Smith, Lee Youngblood, Florence Zettin, Edna Gorton, Caroline Footh, Emily Young, Florence Cook, Gladys Haring, Susan Thomas, Etta Glazier, Dorothy Winemiller, Lucile Michael, Maxine Krisler.

The volleyball intramurals were held in a different manner than usual in that they had three divisions: sorority active, sorority pledge, and independent teams. There were twenty-nine teams entered altogether.

The Ball Punchers, winners of the independent division ended as victors of the Intramural Championship. This team consisted of the following members: Lelia Julius, Winifred Smith, Alice Johnson, Ida Smith, Dorothy Rettiefor, Alice Stanard and Arneita Rains.

Pi Beta Phi pledge team, winners of the pledge division, included Emily Young, Harriet Crebs, Polly Hendershott, Jean Blake, Marjorie Julian, Charlotte Allen and Billie LeSar.

An honorary varsity team was named including Helen Hunter, Mary Parrott, Sally Ervin, Jeanette Allison, Claire Schneider, Evelyn Dillon, Marjorie Biddle, Susan Woolery, Olive Gill, Gladys Brentlinger and Rose Boczek.

The swimming contest was entered by thirteen teams. Two preliminary meets were held and those girls that placed first and second in each event competed in the final meet.

Mack Hall won with 33 points gained by Etta Glazier, Ann Simpson, Ann McCulloch, Edith Copper and Ruth Gibson.

Kappa Deltas with 28 points were the runners up, with the following contestants: Mary Scofield, Virginia Cunningham, Kathryn Jacklon, Lucile Truman, Mary Krejci, Marjorie Miller, and Elizabeth Whitley.

In deck tennis fourteen teams entered with Neophytes as the winners. The players were Leora Youngblood and Eleanor Hall.

The bowling contest was entered by forty teams of which Neola Cottress and Ilo Young were winners. Emma Anderson, high score bowler for the previous year, retained her position with a score of 203.

WINTER INTRAMURALS

Mary Korn headed the winter quarter intramurals. Five hundred and twenty-four girls participated in the following sports: basketball, baseball, swimming, indoor baseball, ping pong, free throw contest, folk dance festival and apparatus teams.

The basketball tournament was made up of two groups; sororities and other organizations. There were thirty teams entered.

Kappa Kappa Gamma, winners of the sorority division were intramural champions by defeating Neophytes, winners of the other organizations. Players on the Kappa team included Helen Condel, Jane Gibbs, Vera Smith, Catherine Wertz, Ann McCullough, Eleanor Hall, and Virginia Gill.

The Neophyte team included Sara Jordan, Mary Korn, Winifred Warner, Carrie Lehmann, Leora Youngblood, Leonora Hall, and Gladys Brintlinger.

At the end of the tournament, class teams were picked who played off a class tournament with the Sophomores ending as victors.

The Senior team included Marjorie Biddle, Gladys Brintlinger, Evelyn Boggess, Vivienne Ford, Virginia Gill, Betty Greene, Rhoda Gilmore, Mary Korn, Fay McDowell, Marguise McCleery, Mary Van Nest, Mary Goves and Margaret Wilson.

The Juniors playing were Margaret Anderson, Ora Brailey, Rose Boczek, Pearl Dorsey, Sara Ervin, Rosalie Friedman, Florabelle Fundaber, Eleanor Hall, Virginia Harness, Ethel Meermans, Geraldine Missbach, Lucille Nixon, Claire Schneider, Alice Selby, Francelia Streater, Winifred Warner and Gladys Corbett.

The Sophomore team was represented by Hazel Barch, Dorothy Coffman, Helen Condit, Helen Cole, Kay Clark, Warrine Eastburn, Kathryn Grannis, Nellie Gossard, Helen Hunter, Leora Hall, Sara Jordan, Minna Klauminger, Mildred Marquardt, Naomi Rodeheffer, Mary Schofield and Margaret Sanders.

The Freshman contestants were Florence Cook, Katherine Deslerath, Jane Gibbs, Irma Gorman, Polly Hendershott, Arabella Hopkins, Mary Keller, Marian King, Elizabeth Killworth, Crystal Kresher, Ann McCollough, Doris Morrison, Clare Schrader, Lillian Steane, Emily Young, Susan Woolery and Frances West.

Indoor baseball was represented by eight teams of which Kappa Delta sorority was the winner. The Chi Omega team was the runners up.

In the foul shooting contest Margaret Sanders, representing Pi Beta Phi, was winner, shooting 60 out of 75 baskets.

A Folk Dancing Festival was sponsored by the Intramural Department on February 13. Any sorority or group on the campus was eligible to enter. Twenty-three groups competed, including dances of Czecho Slovakia, Germany, Holland, France, England, Norway, Russia, America and Hungary. Theta Phi Alpha sorority won the first prize for its Hungarian dance "Czardas" which was performed with native Hungarian music. Second prize went to Delta Delta Delta who gave the Russian dance "Kamaranskaia". Third place went to Alpha Sigma Alpha for its colored clog dance. At the conclusion of the dances the audience adjourned to the International Teagarden in Pomerene Cafeteria.

SWAN CLUB

Five class teams: Frosh, Sophomore, Junior, Senior, and Graduates entered the swimming meet. The Sophomores were the winners.

The honorary swimming organization for women on the Ohio State campus, Swan Club, is in its third year under the direction of Miss Margaret Lea. Trycuts for membership are held at the beginning of each quarter, the test consisting of diving, form, strokes, endurance, and speed swimming.

The club planned an elaborate water pageant which was given April 23 and 24. The carnival was given in pantomime, a combination of dancing and swimming centered around the carnival theme of a toy shop of dolls. Last year's carnival featured a mock wedding given in the pool.

Swan Club officers for this year were: Margaret Anderson, president; Florabelle Fundberg, vice-president; Alice Dunlap, secretary and Virginia Cunningham, treasurer.

Members chosen to the club this year were: Henrietta Wilson, Margaret Anderson, Florabelle Fundberg, Minna Klavinger, Mary Scofield, Mildred Marquardt, Virginia Cunningham, Rose Boczek, Claire Schneider, Helen Tenny, Ruth Parker, Ruth Cammerer, Alice Dunlap, Virginia Shoop, Ann McCullough, Margaret Ricketts, Marjorie Biddle, Sara Beth Shaw.

Tentative members include Sylvia Bogatin, Etta Glazier, Elizabeth Ruder, Corinne Banov, Emily Young, Clark Robertson, Frances Robertson, Helen Cole, and Mary Helen Voltz.

SWAN CLUB PAGEANT

ORCHESIS

Orchesis was founded in Madison, Wisconsin on the shores of Lake Mendota in 1920. Ohio State is very fortunate in having one of its charter members as the sponsor of the club here. It is open to all who enjoy dancing and can pass simple dancing honors. It is rather a unique organization in that no pin is worn.

There are similar clubs to this in nearly all the universities and colleges of the country. The word Orchesis comes from the Greek word meaning dance.

Once a quarter the club sponsors a guest night at which time all people interested are invited to attend.

This year the club put on an effective dance program on Tradition's Day, May 16.

The officers this year included: Mary Thomas, president; Mary Cook, vice-president; Sylvia Waldman, secretary; Mary Krejcie, treasurer and Alice Deeg, wardrobe mistress.

Members of Ohio State Orchesis include: Virginia Axline, Anne Bartram, Mary Bennett, Marjorie Berg, Mary Cook, Alice Deeg, Evelyn Dick, Florence Felhabber, Helen Fidler, Edith Gibson, Bertha Jacobsen, Deana Jevan, Mary Krecji, Virginia Lee Long, Mildred Marquardt, Adelyn Reynaltdt, Ruth Richards, Emma Rose, Doris Smith, Wilma Snider, Clara Schneider, Marabelle Snyder, Catherine Stofer, Mary Thomas, Sylvia Waldman, Carolyn Whitcomb, Catherine Wells, Rose Boczek, Wanda Ream, Alice Buehrer, Mary Evans, Julia Davidson, Margaret Fargo and Helen Hannah.

With the return of 300 alumni for the celebration of the Golden Anniversary of Phi Kappa Psi at Ohio State, the week-end of February 21 was given over to class reunions, a formal dance, initiation, and a stag banquet. Among those returning were Frank Monnett, James Thurber, Jack Snyder, and Howard Townsend, national president. On Sunday afternoon, alumni and friends were entertained with tea at the chapter house.

The object of the Newman Club is to foster the spiritual, intellectual, and social interests of the Catholic students at Ohio State University. The early founders of Newmanism chose Cardinal Newman as patron. A student and professor at Oxford, the greatest master of English in the nineteenth century, John Henry Newman has an especial appeal to college students.

This year the Newman Club at Ohio State was host to the Province Convention at which delegates from sixteen colleges and universities were present. Cecil Fenning's costume-recital and the lecture by Father Gerald Corbett, O.P., Chaplain of the Catholic Actor's Guild were highlights in the clubs activities during the year. Drama, music, and discussion groups have been formed and are vital parts of the club's interest. The club was founded at the University of Pennsylvania in 1893 and has 164 active chapters.

DAIRY PRODUCTS JUDGING TEAM

In the Thirteenth Student's National Dairy Products Contest held in St. Louis this past winter, the Ohio State team captured first positions in the all-products competition and the milk and cheese contests. Our team fared slightly worse in the ice cream and butter judging registering a third place in the former and a sixth position in the latter. Altogether there were teams entered from fifteen states with each team consisting of three men whose individual duties were to judge four dairy products. Of the five cups offered to the prize-winners our entrant proved successful in capturing the All-products trophy and the Milk and Cheese cups.

The members of the team were Gale Kasler, Ag-3; Willard Boyer, Ag-3; Luther Mindling, Ag-3, and alternate, Frank Holeski, Ag-4.

Mr. Kasler of the Ohio team scored highest in the individual rating of the All-products, the milk, and the cheese competition. Because of his outstanding performances in the above Mr. Kasler became the recipient of three beautiful gold medals offered by the National Dairy Association, International Association of Milk Dealers, and the Kraft-Phoenix Cheese Company. It was also his good fortune to receive a gold watch from the National Cooperative Milk Producer's Federation. Mr. Kasler, a junior in the college of Agriculture, lives in Amesville, Ohio which community has been his home since his birth.

The second outstanding man on our team was Mr. Willard Boyer, a junior majoring in Dairy Technology, whose home is at Ashland. In return for his third place effort in the milk judging contest he received a very clever little bronze medal.

Other men on the team were Mr. Luther Mindling of Bayard, Ohio, who gained a seventh place in the milk judging competition and Mr. Frank Holeski of Richfield, Ohio.

Members of the faculty who assisted in the coaching of the team were Professors Burgwald, Erb, Stoltz, and Donald Hochheiser.

JOSEPH A. PARK
Dean of Men

IN HIS position as Dean of Men, Joe Park has filled an important niche and has endeared himself to the men of Ohio State. Serving for three years previously as Student Counselor, he has welcomed always undergraduates who have come to him for consultation and through his office intimate connections are made with the student body.

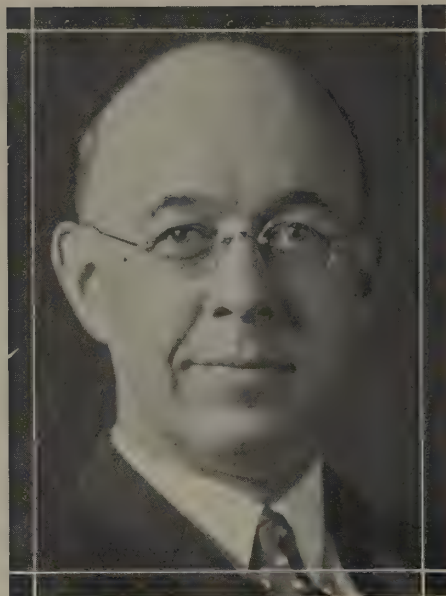

CHIEF among the functions of the Dean of Women is the establishing of regulations for the women students. In this, Mrs. Gaw has proven herself a wise and friendly executive, willing always to cooperate with the co-eds in solving the many problems of undergraduate life. She also supervises the provision of housing facilities for women.

ESTHER ALLEN GAW
Dean of Women

DEAN WALTER SHEPHARD

JUNIOR DEAN JOSEPH TRAUTMAN

COLLEGE OF ARTS

The great desire for the liberal education as offered by the College of Arts and Sciences is clearly evidenced by the fact of its large registration. Aiming principally at the building of a cultural background through inculcation of classical and scientific knowledge, the college purports preparation for the professional and graduate schools, as well as for the business world. A definite niche has been filled by the Junior Dean in bringing about a closer contact between students and the administration. With the completion of the new Derby Hall, foreign languages have all, for the first time in several decades, been located in the same building.

Ivied walls of History and Philosophy.

DEAN WALTER WERDLER

COLLEGE OF COMMERCE

With the teaching of the science of business administration as its primary purpose, this school attempts to prepare its students in methods of organizing technical processes of production. Courses in all phases of the commercial world are offered in the several departments. Second only to the College of Arts in point of registration, the urgent need for additional space has presented an important problem. Here again the position of the Junior Dean has worked for a more efficient administration in relieving the Dean of the routine duties of supervision and in permitting his closer attention to the growth and improvement of the College.

Here future business executives are trained.

DEAN EMBURY HITCHCOCK

COLLEGE OF ENGINEERING

Keeping pace with the development of modern science, the engineering profession has made a rapid growth which is being reflected in each school of the College. Recently courses in aeronautical engineering have been added to the curriculum, and the Ceramic school still stands foremost in the country. Although for some time the College offices have been scattered throughout the various buildings, the proposed completion of Brown Hall will permit restoration to their original home. The Engineering Court now under consideration will allow more efficient utilization of equipment and materials. Through its research work, the College has in the past rendered important service to the various departments of the government.

COLLEGE OF EDUCATION

The large enrollment of the College of Education points to the importance of ample facilities for proper teacher training. A University High School, the plans for which have been completed, is to be built on old Ohio Field, and will furnish excellent facilities for practice teaching. A central policy of the College has been emphasis upon the utilization of knowledge and upon the exploration of new ideas. As in other schools, the Junior Dean has played an important part in the assistance of students in choosing their curricula. The question as to the desirability of an addition to the Education Building is under consideration at present.

Where youth is taught to pass its knowledge on.

DEAN ALFRED VIVIAN

COLLEGE OF AGRICULTURE

Of great economic value to the various farm bureaus throughout the state is the extension service furnished by the College of Agriculture. Splendid equipment and facilities for instruction and practice have been responsible for the wide attraction of the Agricultural courses. A chief aim of this college has been the promotion of higher standards of living among agriculturalists through the teaching of higher standards of thinking. An attempt is being made to make the farmer more aware of his position in the economic scheme and to get him to think along scientific lines. A central building for all laboratory work is a proposed addition to the College.

Here the future agriculturist receives scientific training.

DEAN WILLIAM MCPHERSON

DEAN HERSCHEL ARANT

COLLEGE OF LAW

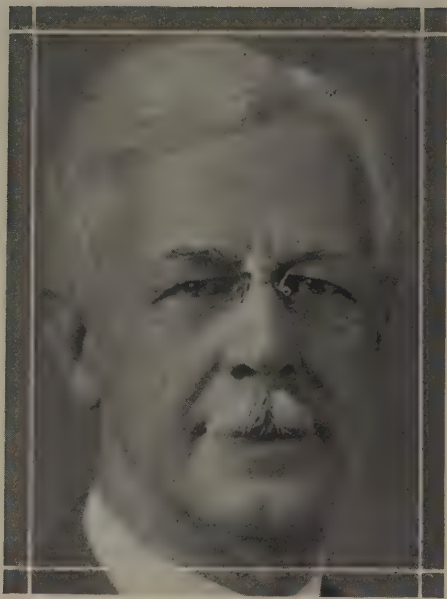

Progress in building and improving its faculty has been marked in the recent development of the College of Law. With the instilling of ideals of law and justice as its fundamental principals, the College has made rapid strides in grooming students for the practice of law, although many times the training is taken merely as a preparation for general business.

GRADUATE SCHOOL

The large number of students who take work in the Graduate School evidences the fact of its superiority in opportunities for research and for advanced study. Graduates who come each year from the various colleges throughout the state have established a live connection between the University and the smaller neighboring schools.

Within this columned facade the science of law is studied.

DEAN JOHN UPHAM

DEAN HARRY SEMANS

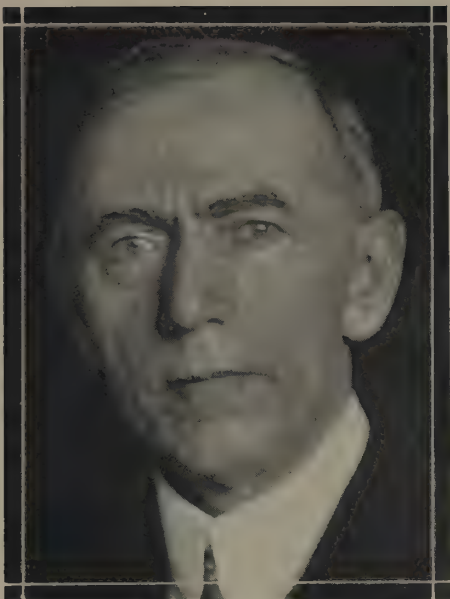

Here the laboratories and clinic of the medical and dental schools.

COLLEGE OF MEDICINE

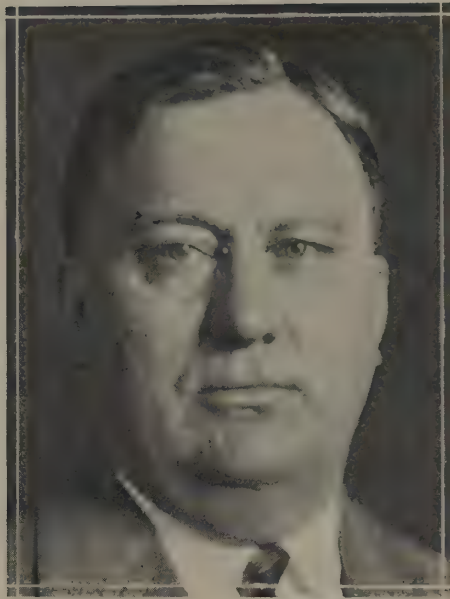

The maintenance of the University Hospital by the College of Medicine has provided an excellent opportunity for practical training of medical students. The large number of charity cases treated annually by the clinic provides fine experiences for those going into the practice of medicine. Many prominent physicians are numbered among the alumni of the College.

COLLEGE OF DENTISTRY

Preparing its students for the practice of dental surgery, the College of Dentistry provides ample facilities for practice work through its large clinic. The high ranking enjoyed by this school attracts a large number of men and accounts for the high percentage of practitioners in the vicinity who hold degrees as its graduates.

DEAN CLAIR DYE

DEAN OSCAR BRUMLEY

COLLEGE OF VETERINARY MEDICINE

A principal aim of the College of Veterinary Medicine has been the prevention and treatment of animal disease. Additional space has been provided with the removal of the Bacteriological laboratories and more efficient practice facilities are being planned. Foremost in size among the veterinary schools of the country, the College has rendered valuable service in meat inspection.

COLLEGE OF PHARMACY

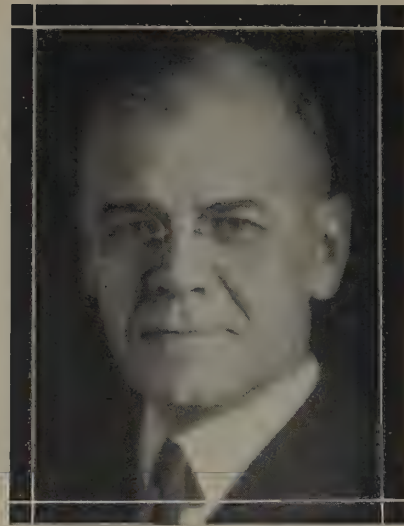

The assembling of the various departments of the College of Pharmacy in the new Bacteriology and Pharmacy Building has greatly improved the opportunities for a thorough scientific and technical training. Students of this profession are taught especially the dissemination of public health information and must take a more fully rounded course than those offered at the majority of similar schools.

FERDINAND FAIRFAX STONE

With such an enviable record as an underclassman established by our dark haired friend from Urbana it was little wonder that his classmates selected him to lead their class of 1930 as its president. Notable among his achievements during college are such things as the chief justice-ship of the Student Court, Editorship of the Makio of 1929 and membership in the two coveted honoraries, Bucket and Dipper and Sphinx.

MARGARET LAWLER GALLEN

Surely you all know Marg, that winning smile and pretty face have captivated many a feminine heart and yes—some men's. Following out the precedent of Ferd, Margaret also assumed the office of vice-presidency of her class only after taking an active part in various campus organizations. Highlights of her four years are the presidency of Women's Pan-Hellenic Council during the past year, Student Senate, Chimes, and Senior Y. W. C. A. Cabinet.

EVELYN J. RICHARD

To really know all the activities in which Evelyn has participated we will have to refer you to page 410. But if you really want to know some of them, Evelyn has been on Women's Self Government Association for the past four years, and was one of the eight or nine women who had the distinction of being the first co-eds to serve on the Student Senate. Yes, we forgot to mention she is also the secretary of the Senior Class.

ALBERT F. HESS

Perhaps you are a devotee of the national pastime and then you know Al best as a sterling outer gardener who has a penchant for lifting the ball down by the cinder path around the outside of the stadium. And then again you may have seen Hess the Halfback streaking down the field with the seemingly immense "25", to all appearances burdening the slim back of our lithe young friend. But it doesn't matter because regardless of all that Al is still the most efficient Treasurer of this year's graduating class.

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Wesley Fesler, noted somewhat in football, basketball and baseball has achieved the position of President of the Junior Class. In 1928 "Wes" was rated as an All-American end. "Fes" recently turned down a movie contract in order to keep his friendships at the Pi Kappa Alpha house.

INRCHO

Delta Sigma Phi is responsible for Gerald Baynes, Vice-President of the Class. Gerald is quite a popular young man at the Ohio Union.

The Secretary of the Class of 1931 is Beatrice Torbert, Kappa Kappa Gamma. Beatrice is actively associated with the Senior Cabinet of the Y. W. C. A.

Paul Jones, Glee Club President, has taken a little time out during the past year to fill the position of Treasurer of the Class of 1931.

FRESHMAN CLASS OFFICERS

Curtiss Inscho busies himself with signing petitions for revival of traditions, attending the meetings of the Freshman Class and acting as its President. Curtiss is pledged Delta Tau Delta.

Stuart Holcomb, affectionately known as "Stu" by his friends is a member of Phi Delta Theta. One of Holcomb's chief activities outside of football and basketball, is being President of the Sophomore Class.

Florence Bunnell, acts as the Vice-President of the 1932 Class. "Bunny" finds time also for the Y. W. C. A., Women's Ohio, and the Makio. The Pi Beta Pi's claim her as a member.

Marian Anderson, Tri-Delt, is active in Dramatic circles. Marian has built herself quite a reputation in the Scarlet Mask Club. Marian is Secretary of the Sophomore Class.

Lowell A. Wrigley, baseball and basketball player, is the treasurer of the Class of 1932. Lowell is also a member of Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

THE WORK IS ENDED

The work is ended, the office empty and deserted, staff members once more attend classes and frequent the library. I sit and blankly stare at a few old engraving proofs crumbled up in a corner of the desk while the huge roaring presses hungrily beg for this last bit of copy. I dream happily of the leisure ahead but each thought is tinged with a pleasant memory of the toil during the past year. I rejoice in the multitude of prized friendships made and the excellent spirit of cooperation that at all times has characterized the work in this office. Each hour, each day of work that I think of brings with it the recollection of innumerable delightful events that I will always remember.

In undertaking the publishing of this Makio of 1930, we assumed an enormous responsibility; a task made severe by precedent. Each of the past forty-eight years has seen appear on the Campus an excellent Makio; they have all been splendid books of great worth and merit and have set standards high and difficult of attainment. In the full realization of our job and with the mighty desire to succeed we have put forth our greatest energies in the hope of offering to you this Makio, a book fine in spirit, in theme, and in literary content.

We appreciate the fine work of Mr. Byron C. Robertson and Milton Caniff in the execution of our art plans.

The Bureau of Engraving are the makers of the engravings in this book. We want to thank Mr. J. J. Sher and Art Segal for their marvelous cooperation in the planning and the development of the book.

Mr. A. A. Lubersky and the S. K. Smith Company furnished us with our excellent cover.

As usual, the Baker Art Gallery has given us excellent pictures and their ever dependable service. We appreciate the work and assistance of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haskett in developing the scenic section, the Ohio life section, and all the pictures around the campus.

The Rogers Printing Company printed this Makio. They have been splendid to work with and have done their utmost to make this a beautiful book. To Mr. Oliver M. Rogers and Mr. Paul Robertson we extend our especial thanks.

Advertising Director
Columbus Dispatch
Columbus, Ohio

My dear Mr. Young:

The daily paper has long since come to be indispensable in the daily life, both of the people in school and out of school. Every student should take a little time each day to run through the daily newspaper and so keep himself in touch with the events, both foreign and domestic, which every person must know in order to keep in step. We become so familiar with the wonderful news service of the present day newspaper that we sometimes fail to appreciate the magnitude of the service and the significance of the news furnished.

The Columbus Dispatch is well known among the students of the Ohio State University and its services as a collector and publisher of news and as an advertising medium are appreciated by the entire University community.

With best wishes, for your continued success and greetings from the Ohio State University,

Sincerely,

George W. Rightmire

PREPAREDNESS

If you would rise above the mediocre, be satisfied with nothing but the best; give the best and demand the best.

Surround yourself with the best of equipment, because, consciously or unconsciously, we all react to the stimuli of our environment.

In addition to making your work easier and more efficient, good equipment elevates your professional status in the minds of your patients.

The S. S. White Equipment Unit No. 6 and the Diamond Chair No. 2 represent the most modern of equipment for the dental office. Together they will provide the modern appliances for efficient service and comfort to your patients and ever be a source of inspiration to do your best.

Write to your dealer or direct for literature, office planning service and deferred payment contracts

THE MUNKEL GAS ATTACHMENT

In the past, gas attachments for coal furnaces have been inefficient and very costly to operate. The Munkel Gas Attachment is practical in any type of coal furnace, regardless of size or make. You can burn gas or coal without affecting the efficiency of either unit.

Do away with all the drudgery and uncleanness of coal and ashes by adding The Munkel Gas Attachment to your present furnace. Think of the economy and convenience of using a gas appliance of this kind, which can be operated with automatic control.

The cost of this installation is within the means of everyone.

Harvard's newest creation in dental cabinets—modern and dignified in design, solid mahogany generously inlaid, beautifully finished and completely fitted. See this striking example of Harvard's progressiveness at your nearest Harvard Dealer's Depot, or write us for descriptive literature.

Compare Harvard Equipment with that of any other make

TODAY, as in previous years, Harvard offers a complete line of dental office furniture—the New Peerless Harvard Chair, embodying many new and improved features of which quite a few are distinctively Harvard; a variety of Harvard Cabinets, made famous by Harvard Craftsmanship; the Harvard Units, Model A and Model B, the units which, when introduced, became popular over night; the Harvard Electric Engine, for years recognized for its trustworthiness; the Harvard Wall and Auxiliary Cabinets, seen in so many dental offices; the Harvard Laboratory Bench, typical of Harvard's fine cabinet workmanship; the Harvard Lathe, well known for its dependable qualities.

Every piece of the Harvard Line easily meets the three important requirements of the Profession—high efficiency, modern and attractive appearance and long life of dependable service.

And Harvard Equipment is always designed and constructed to stand the acid test of comparison with any make of equipment—regardless of price.

Inspect and examine the Harvard Line at the depot of your nearest Harvard Dealer—and compare it, point for point, with that of any other make. Harvard Equipment is also sold on a very liberal time payment plan, if you desire it.

ATO made Bucket and Dipper this year for the first time since 1890, thanks to Herbie Decker, the new cheer leader, and at least a much obliged to Bill Radebaugh, the SAE, who didn't want the job. The boys bought a new phonograph record this year, too, and are certainly the coming fraternity. With a joint average of 3.89 for the year, and the season's pledging coup in snagging Organist Bill Dalton and his Loew's Ohio Passes before the other Greeks knew he was in school, the boys are so enthusiastic they are even going to try to grow grass in the front yard in 1932. If they're successful, they hope the alumni will get them a new house, or a house mother.

They had only two pledges stolen by the Phi Psi's throughout the year, and they declare it isn't because they didn't have good pledges.

Upper picture shows, left to right to medium small, W. Fessler; R. Larkins, ears up, and dark eyes alight with all the love in the world; J. Ujhelyi, who'll be missed by spts. writers and raddio announcers; F. Barratt, nose close to earth, and evidently on the trail; S. Selby, whose deeply tanned nose and sad look mark him as a man of destiny; M. Marsh, big brawny Sigma Chi who lounges in the background, looking keenly into the stands; and dancing L. Fontaine, coy Akroner.

Below we are lucky enough to have the backfield entire. The dusky little man on the extreme left seems to be an error, and can't be identified. Call him Common People. Then, l. to r., we have popular, light-hearted A. Holman, gazing west toward Iowa; snappy little Stew Holcomb, nose smack down; Bob Grady, with a gone expression and leaning perilously forward; and, flank view only, Journalist Al Hess.

AT THE GATE OF THE CAMPUS

My good young people, look upon this Lantern slide and repent! Seek not to be a Big Man on the Campus for vanity, vanity, all is vanity, saith the profit. This is Wesley "Three-Star Hennessy" Fesler. And what is Lesler doing? That is the sad part. One of the boys at the house has just found a copy of Colliers and read to Wesler the startling info that he did not make Grantland Rice's foist time!

You see what happened next. Borrowing a Sprungfield from the militant dept., a golf club from the golf dept., and a pair of shoes from the hardware dept., Fesley is heading East in a big way to find out just who will make the Puffed Rice All-American next fall. Note them curling eye-lashes, them wavy ringlets chastely pushed back from the brow, them hostsy Warner Bros. smile. (Will he make the team or no?) Echo answers, he hasn't failed yet! He's practically certain to make her.

Back home in Youngstown he's the village cut-up. "Will you look and see what that crazy Tesler brat done?" drawl the natives, as they pick up their quaint match-locks, secured from the white men in exchange for precious ivory—secured from the shaggy Feslers, often at the risk of death—and go look for their daughters. Till he came to Ohio State, nobody knew that there was life west of Canton. Some are still wondering.

Leaning over to talk to practically any one who will listen, we have Brother Richard Larkins, the Man Who Knows Fesler. And dang it all, ain't that a pretty title for a man to come all the way from East Liverpool for? When Rickard finally got eased out of high school he thought he'd go to college and be a big-shot—y' know, win games in the last second of play, and all that sort of stuff.

So he comes to Ohio State, y' see, knowing that he'd never get beyond first base at Pitt or some of those big football schools. He was tired of being a center, and looking at the back-field upside down.

The only way the crowd ever finds out who the center is is when he lobs one three feet over the head of the kicker or passer, and no cheers come from that.

Down here he comes, all set to be a half-back or an end, and haul down passes to ramble forty yards. But chucks—he's up against Fesler right away, and that idea is out. So he goes out for basketball, and Fesler is again the kill-joy. When he goes out for baseball in the spring to find Fesler all set to play anything Larkins wanted to play, he gets discouraged and gives up baseball.

An architect, of course, is a very low form of engineering life which is found exclusively in Brown Hall. Practically all architects are unknown, and the classification of this specimen is of course very loosely done, but what gives this picture interest is the way in which he met his death. The ice-skates, get it? Well, he tried to go ice-skating on Mirror Lake in May. That was an error, but it will certainly be a lesson to him.

If he'd only worked off his College Physics earlier in the year! Then he would have known all about liquids freezing, or is that in Sociology? Maybe it's Economics. Not home economics, of course, but just—well, just general economics. The broad, vital, basic, smutty facts of life, courageously faced. Surely there must be some course around here which teaches the rate of freezing of liquids such as water, alcohol—As I was saying, more water.

First impressions are grooved deep. That is the reason so many State Students remain our loyal customers from their Freshman days, to the end of their Senior Year.

In our two conveniently located stores, State Students will find all of the items needed in their Classroom Work — moderately priced.

Here, fellas, we 'ave the Ohio Aeronautical Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animal—Crackers, I'm just wild about Animal—Crackers. The boys are just going into their dance, and Eddie—that's the dark-haired one on the left with the swell eyes and the neat part in his hair ain't he gorjust—he's saying to Eddie, who's a big man on the campus and doesn't wear his Union pin any more except when he's home, that he wishes he had Joe Park to hand. To hand and To Hold.

For Joe spiked their little game this year. The boys was writing to alumni and getting money from them to build a fleet of planes with which to fight off the Japs when they come over. But Joe, he don't take no stock in them Jap tales, partly because he bought too much erl stock once, and partly because he himself is Japanese. 'Safact. But don't let Biederman know it.

So the Boy Aviators of the Olentangy can't get their names in the Lantern any more, as John Burkhart used to pile 'em in on dull days of the full quarter.

Beautiful Sentiment --- Beautifully Expressed

A Fraternity Badge signifies membership in an organization of lofty purpose. Its wearer is given a high place in the minds of men, for it is felt that he has ideals in life that are worth realization. To the member himself, the pin has even greater significance. It is a token of the days when life's lasting friendships were formed—youth. It is the symbol of ideals which are guiding his life. This symbol deserves the greatest creative interpretation possible. We are the creators of such badges.

The Best Paid Hard Work In The World

The two primary considerations which should enter into the choice of a life work are its opportunities and its requirements.

WHAT SELLING LIFE INSURANCE OFFERS

To the man who succeeds, selling Life Insurance offers such good financial returns that it has been called "the best paid hard work in the world."

It offers congenial associations; the salesman can choose his clientele, for practically everyone needs what he has to sell.

It offers an opportunity to promote the welfare of others by arranging for funds to replace the breadwinner's income in time of need. It is social service on a sound financial basis.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUISITE FOR SUCCESS

Can You Sell Our Leading Contract? It guarantees—

$10,000 to the family if the breadwinner dies

$100 monthly if he becomes disabled

$100 monthly for life for his own old age

The main qualifications are character, a liking for people, self-confidence, and a willingness to work hard. This last is most important for people rarely buy life insurance. Nearly always they must be sold and selling is hard work.

IF YOU WOULD LIKE TO KNOW MORE ABOUT IT

Brother Holman, of the Ohio State chapter, is shown here getting ready to propose to practically anybody who will listen to him. He's a Sig Alph, which limits his field, but any one not drawing two class distinctions may apply at the cashier's desk and have their fee card stamped before Awkward Al starts his song. He isn't really as bad as he looks. This dying-duck look he wears here is pretty sad, but when sober he is fairly amusing. But getting him sober—oh, oh, the trouble I've see.

Out in Ioway, where the tall corn, as the song has it, grow, they raise Holmans and Mareks for export to Ohio. Coming down east here in the center of culture is good for them, but should this picture get west his life would be worth not that (snnnnnpp, snpppppp) and for why? Because, out there in the silences of the great fir trees, a gentle Iowa maiden pines, while he is down here being a vagabond lover as much as he can.

Girls, remember this, and when he sings his siren song to you, refuse him. You can see by his face that He's desperate. He's going through the directory proposing. Jane Addisson turned him down long ago, and it is rumored that Agnes Murphy is next on his list. He works fast, you'll admit.

So you think George Simpson is a fast human, eh? Well, that's where you're wrong, see? This here's Ran Darnell, a Phi Psi, but otherwise a perfectly normal chap. And Darnell believes that, aided by starting blocks, hand-blocks, hand-cuffs, and his own timers, he can shatter the 9.4 hundred time of the Chi Phi Kid.

That's right, laugh! People laughed at Edison, at Henry Ford, at Mark Twain, at Copernicus, at Galileo, at Marconi, at Frank Sullivan, at Ben Franklin, at Milton, at intervals. And where are they today? Dead? No, that isn't what I mean. Y'see, fellas, I want you to understand this world we live in. It's really a wonderful little old world, fellas, and if you'd come over to "Y" meetings some time, fellas, I'm sure you'd enjoy it all a lot more.

Anyway, Darnell has practically worn down the hills of Zinzinnati with his horseless carriage. Of course, like all pioneers, he's had to suffer the jeers of the unthinking mob, but he's kept a stiff upper lip—see how stiff it is? I bet you can't make yours that stiff! Ah, ya can't either. Well, I bet my brother can—and fought on, on, on, on, on, on to victory. As Edgar Guest says so beautifully in his "Ode to a Grecian Urn, Isn't he cute, Agnes?"

My satchel, but that's a pretty picture of Mirror Lake! Drat the girl, why don't she get out of the way? These mucking girls around here are the darnedest nuisances—oh, it's Kate Born. She's a Theta, but then we've all made mistakes. None of us are perfect, God knows, and the same thing might have happened to you if you'd been in her place. Probably if you knew the circumstances you would pardon her.

Nobody's quite clear as to what Kittie is impersonating. She may be Robin Hood, or Maid Marian, or Cupid, or Sappho, or La Dame Aux Camellias, or even Lady Winnermere's Fan. Of course, if she were Cupid, the question would arise as to why she failed to dress in the customary Cupidic attire.

If the britches fit better, this would be a nicer pitcher. But geev a look at that flashy smile she's giving the world. She wants to show the world that Ellie Wilcox, Theta, the girl with the Packard, is not the only gel around here with a personality. The sisters donated Ellie a pin to prove she has personality, but Kittie wants it understood that she has lots of pins to prove that same point. The two on parade are not bad, not bad. But pins—that reminds of her big failure. She was pledges Beta Theta Pi, for a while, but he yanked the pin.

White is for Purity, and here we have the winning float in the Ohio State For Simpson parade moving out. This float, piloted by Joe (Toughie) Ujhelyi, represented the combined Purity and Holiness Leagues, and to the left—the dark smoothie—is Sam Williams, Holiness League Prexy, and to the right is Frank Hays, Purity League ditto. Ukelele is only jesting with them when he flutters the whip thoughtfully, for he knows they will throw their weight into the traces and tug manfully, without any goading.

This float was borrowed from a milk-man who had gone into an apartment to deliver milk or cream or something, and it serves him right. He nearly broke up the parade when he came along and tried to take his wagon back, but he got nowhere. Dick Rockaway and Bill Heintz, who may be seen lurking under the off side of the wagon disguised as wheels or heels or something, beat him off easily enough.

Earl Wilson, Lantern columnist and slanderer, who has constituted himself William's press-agent, is sitting on the back of the float counting his clippings.

EUCLID at NINTH

"The open roadster is coming back!" says Bill Radebaugh, prominent man on the campus at Ohio State University, shown above at the wheel of his snappy open job. Radebaugh confesses that if it were not for his roadster he wouldn't be able to get his work done at all. In fact he might not even get any work to do.

Rabbi Radebaugh is snapped here as he is about to commence one of his popular sex talks on the atom. At the close of his lecture he peddles a very few—the supply is nearly gone, folks!—of Radebaugh's Radical Renovator For Young and Old Alike. He gives it away at two dollars a bottle just to advertise it.

During the past year he was the only one-legged cheerleader in the Big Ten, and was one of the other chorus men in the Skillet Flask show. His favorite flower is Oscar Thomas, who spiked the Radebaugh-For-Cheerleader-To-Replace-Radebaugh movement. Radebaugh was running. The big question in this picture is, does the horse know it's Radebaugh, or is he only smiling at a friend?

"Penrod Schofield's nakkid!" ran the cry through the Ohio State campus as the above gentleman appeared on the Oval in all his glory but not all his clothes. Of course, Sam Williams, Penrod's book-pal and now president of the Holiness-Purity League here, is rumored to have something to do with this apparition, but he blames it on Sun Dial.

Maybe this is Penrod Schofield. But it looks more like Marion, Ohio, Chenoweth, the big, handsome, affluent conductor of the "WHAT THE WELL-DRESSED MEN WILL WEAR" Column on the Lantern.

Men the country over will be interested in Chenoweth's attire, and we venture to state that his pose of right hand to right ear will be copied widely. But to his attire. He wears a double-breasted English coat, popular in the Dartmoor district of the Tight Little Isle, and his trousers, with box pleats and lace scallops, measure thirty-eight inches at the knee, and ten at the ankle—the new style.

OF COURSE

... you'll want your own x-ray unit

FREQUENT use of the x-ray is one of the ways by which the public is learning to distinguish the progressive dentist. More and more the leaders in the profession are installing their own x-ray units.

The Victor CDX Dental X-Ray Unit has been a great factor in creating this vogue for individual ownership. The Victor CDX hangs suspended from the wall. It is electrically safe. Both transformer and tube, insulated in oil, are enclosed in the tube head. There is no high tension current exposed anywhere. You and your patient can touch the CDX anywhere while it is in operation. There is no danger of shock.

Let us send you the facts drawn from the experience of successful practitioners about this modern unit. It makes radiography almost as simple as photography. As you start out, you cannot afford to be without this important tool of your profession. Write us about monthly payment plan.

And this is the new Ohio Union! Yessir, it'll be the biggest Ohio Union in the entire world when all the construction work is finished. First of all, since it must be up by March 16, at 2 P.M., 1942, work will be begun immediately on the tearing down of Halls Haves, Derby, University, and the Administration Building. Not all this ground will be needed, but it makes the workmen feel luxurious to see open spaces around them.

These old and entirely unsuitable shacks will all be down by the end of August. Construction work will commence in 1938 some time, and to prepare for it the Union fee will be raised beginning next fall to $50. This will entitle members to two union pins and a union suit. Members are requested not to wear their hats in the union.

Than man you see leaning out of window on either the right or left side of the building, depending on the way the picture is used—if it is used—is George Simpson, who is yelling down to Dick Rockaway to tell him that some dirty such and such stole the soap.
